

MacArthur Fears Military

Maneuvers For Election Ugly Threat

Lansing, Mich., May 15—(AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur asserted tonight that election maneuvering in the presidential campaign "sets the stage for the emergence upon the American scene of the ugly threat of a military state."

MacArthur spoke before a joint session of the Michigan state legislature.

He did not openly identify a political party, nor any candidate, in his warning about "political conniving." However, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, a leading contender for the Republican nomination, is the only military figure in the race.

During the Massachusetts primary election, April 28, campaign leaders for Sen. Robert A. Taft charged that Eisenhower's backers sought Democratic support.

Major Points In Speech

MacArthur made three other major points in his prepared speech:

1. He said the talk of an imminent threat to the security of the United States from abroad is "pure nonsense." Not even the troops in western Europe are in any present danger, the general said.

2. Nevertheless, "our country is now geared to an arms economy which was bred in an artificially induced psychosis of war hysteria and nurtured upon the incessant propaganda of fear."

3. "Our leaders are unable to survey the world as a unit, but have become so infatuated with one area of western Europe that they have largely ignored the Communist assaults in many other areas of the globe." Asia, he said, has been allowed "to go by inertia and default." MacArthur has yet endorsed no candidate publicly, but has been depicted by friends as a supporter of Senator Taft for the GOP nomination.

Taft backers have already charged there is an "immoral alliance" between Republican friends of Eisenhower and the Democratic party.

Eisenhower was second to Sen. Estes Kefauver in a Democratic primary in Massachusetts last month and third in Democratic votes in Pennsylvania. He was the winner in the Massachusetts Republican primary.

Has No Aspirations

As for his own aspirations, MacArthur said:

"There is no politics in me, nor none intended in what I say. I plead nothing but Americanism."

He accused the Democratic administration of over-emphasizing Europe and toying with the idea of bandoning the Pacific to Communism.

MacArthur said America's great danger is from forces within and not without its borders, even including Soviet Russia. He claimed there is no present danger to western Europe because Russia prefers to use internal pressures against her foes rather than direct military force.

He demanded reduced taxes and a "return to a diffusion of the political power so wisely ordained by the Constitution, leaving to the community the management of its local affairs and to the citizen the management of his personal life."

He asked no let-up in the cold war with Communism. But he deplored inflation and what he termed the mortgaging too deeply of America's industrial potential.

DOUGLAS WRITES BOOK ON ECONOMY

Chicago, May 15—(AP)—Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) today threw the book at free-handed spenders of the taxpayers' money.

"It was a new book. He wrote it. The title: 'Economy in the National Government.'"

Douglas, an economist, said federal spending, if it goes unchecked, may reach $5.4 billion dollars in the 1952-53 fiscal year.

He outlined a program for balancing the budget. His proposals included:

Cutting down on agricultural conservation payments, research and price supports; trimming silver, air line and shipping subsidies and outlays for GI education and public works; reducing personnel in some divisions; and pruning in the post office department. These and similar cutbacks could save 1.8 billion.

"Eliminating waste" dollar-nursing changes that could reduce the military budget by 4 billion.

Slashing foreign aid by 1.8 billion. Douglas also suggested that closing tax loopholes and making several changes in rates and tax practices would increase the government's income by 2.4 billion.

The book was published today by the University of Chicago Press.

POW Trade Barrier To Armistice

Munich, Germany, May 15—(AP)—Repercussions from Gen. Mark Clark's repudiation of the Korean prisoner pact were expected today at the Korean peace talks, already rocked by violent Red charges.

Communist negotiators were expected to seize upon the Allied commander's statement in Tokyo that an agreement signed with prisoners to free kidnapped Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd "has no validity whatsoever."

Undoubtedly, they will assert this is further evidence in support of their charges—denied by the Allies—of inhumane treatment of prisoners.

The Communist charges Thursday ran to fantastic lengths, such as statements that prisoners were subjected to poison gas, germ warfare and atom bomb experiments.

Wary Allied negotiators could only reply "ridiculous" and "preposterous" as the stream of Red charges flooded the conference tent at Panmunjom.

The negotiating generals and admirals from the warring nations gathered at Panmunjom today at 11 a.m. (8 p.m. Thursday, CST).

The two sides are locked over the prisoner exchange issue, the sole barrier—but a formidable one—to an armistice. Only 70,000 of 170,000 enemy prisoners and civilian internees want to go back behind the iron curtain. The Reds demand the return of all military prisoners.

Demos Name Dever Keynote For Chicago Meeting

Chicago, May 15—(AP)—Democrats today chose Gov. Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts to deliver the keynote speech at their national convention.

Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, speaker of the House, was picked to handle the gavel as permanent chairman—a role he filled in the 1948 nominating session.

Dever and Rayburn were agreed upon by the Democratic convention arrangements committee.

Gov. Dever, as temporary chairman, will make the keynote address—the lead-off speech in a round of oratory and action that will produce the party's nominees for president and vice president.

Dever, 49, is a lawyer by profession and has been the chief executive of his home state since 1949.

Dever and Rayburn are the only speakers definitely billed thus far. But others will be booked to appear before the delegates and a nationwide television audience before the program is completed.

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, an accomplished phrase maker who has said he could not accept the presidential nomination, may take a turn on the rostrum to make a speech of welcome. At Springfield the governor told a news conference he is considering making the speech.

Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, the House majority leader, was named chairman of the preliminary platform drafting committee.

This team of 21 members is expected to start work within three weeks on the task of outlining the Democratic 1952 platform.

Frank McHale, Indiana's national chairman of the subcommittee on credentials, the body which hears contests on claims for seats by rival delegations.

McKinney said Rayburn and Dever "give us a perfect geographical balance."

He said "the entire list of 23 Democratic governors" had been screened in considering a keynote.

"Dever was acceptable to all factions," he said. "He's an outstanding orator."

Discussing details for the convention, he made these points:

The convention plan is geared to two sessions a day for four days.

The opening session will start at 10:30 a.m. (Central Standard Time) but no other morning sessions are planned.

RAISE FEWER FRYERS DUE TO LOWER PRICES

Washington, May 15—(AP)—Leading poultrymen are cutting down rather sharply on their operations because of unfavorable prices. The Agriculture department reported today.

Reflecting a reduced demand from poultrymen, commercial hatcheries turned out six per cent fewer baby chicks in April than in the same month last year. They also put 15 per cent fewer eggs in incubators for May hatchings.

These reductions will be reflected in consumer supplies of poultry later in the summer and in supplies of eggs next winter and spring.

W. Germany To Organize 12 Divisions

Bonn, Germany, May 15—(AP)—The Bonn government plans to organize 200,000 first line troops as the core of its contribution to a unified European army, authoritative German sources said tonight.

Recruiting of a 12-division force is expected to start early in 1953. Four armored, four mechanized and four infantry divisions are proposed, along with a tactical air force of 1,200 or more planes that probably will include American type Sabre jets.

The West German army is to be created under a six-nation defense treaty initiated but not yet ratified.

Authoritative sources said about 80,000 service troops will support the combat men. The air force is expected to require 20,000 men and a baby navy will have some 30,000.

The navy will be equipped with minelayers and minesweepers, destroyers, patrol boats and perhaps one-man submarines to help protect the German coast and keep open supply lines in any future war.

Controls Lifted On Few Items, Eased On Others

Washington, May 15—(AP)—The government today lifted controls on four metals, eased its ban on amusement and recreation construction, and gave out word that price ceilings on raw cotton and liquor are about to be suspended.

Dairymen went before congress to ask that it take price controls off milk and milk products but that it retain curbs on the amount of foreign cheese and fats which may be imported.

These were the developments: Liquor—Price controls on liquor probably will be lifted next week. OPS sources said, but the action is not expected to bring any rise in retail prices. Liquor sales have dropped off since federal taxes were boosted last Nov. 1, and distillers have perhaps record stocks on hand.

Building—The National Production Authority (NPA) ordered a relaxation effective July 1 of its ban on the building of amusement and recreation places. It also restored the right to use structural steel and aluminum to new houses, as of mid-year, and eased its restraints on construction of shops, stores and office buildings.

Metals—NPA revoked outright its controls over lead, antimony, cadmium and bismuth. In addition, all location and limitations on the use of zinc were lifted.

Fowler said, however, that many materials remain scarce and some are getting scarcer. He said that if serious strikes occur, or the military picture changes for the worse, "our plans may have to change."

Rubber—The Senate armed services committee recommended a one-year extension of the synthetic rubber act beyond June 30, rather than the two-year extension already voted by the House. Major rubber firms had urged only a one-year continuance.

Fear Shut Down In Plant Making Jets For Korea

Washington, May 15—(AP)—The Federal Conciliation Service was making strenuous efforts today to settle a wage dispute which threatens to shut down a plant producing 47 per cent of all jet engines used in Korea.

Four federal mediators met with representatives of the General Electric Co. plant at Lockland, Ohio, and the two unions involved.

The unions are the CIO United Oilworkers, representing 2,700 employees, and the AFL Machinists, representing 750.

At issue are union demands for a wage increase, other benefits and the union shop, which would compel all workers to join the union.

Ching Calls Meet Of Telegraphers And WU Officials

Washington, May 15—(AP)—Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Mediation Service, today called a meeting for tomorrow between officials of the Western Union Telegraph company and striking AFL Commercial Telegraphers Union in another effort to end the six weeks old telegraph strike.

The most recent talks in the strike recessed last Friday with no progress toward settlement.

The strike, in which an estimated 30,000 employees took part, started April 3 over basic union demands for a wage increase. Since then, there has been no progress toward agreement on a new contract.

BUNNIES MAKE NEW RECORD

Springfield, Ill., May 15—(AP)—Jack Claywell of Springfield today reported what he believes may be a record litter of 17 bunnies born to his New Zealand white doe rabbit.

Claywell breeds rabbits for a hobby. He said he will give seven of the litter to another doe to raise.

First Atomic-Powered Submarine By 1954

Washington, May 15—(AP)—The navy announced today that the keel will be laid next month for the Nautilus, the nation's first atomic-powered submarine.

The actual starting date will be announced shortly, but the navy said nothing about completion. Some navy men have said the new craft may be ready for testing sometime in 1954.

The hull is being built on the ways of the electric boat division of the General Dynamics Corp., formerly known as the Electric Boat Co., at Groton, Conn.

When a contract for the hull was announced last Aug. 21, there was some speculation in navy circles that the Nautilus would be of 2,500-ton size, somewhat larger than present fleet submarines.

Work on a nuclear power engine is being done by the Atomic Energy Commission and the Westinghouse Electric Corp. at Arco, Idaho. The AEC announced on Feb. 21 that a land-based model of a second type of atomic engine would be built by the General Electric Co. at West Milton, N.Y.

The Navy and the AEC plan tests to determine which type of engine is more satisfactory.

The advantages which a nuclear-powered sub are expected to have include greater speed and an ability to cruise underwater for much longer periods—periods limited perhaps only by the physical ability of the crewmen.

The Nautilus will bear the same name as Robert Fulton's first experimental sub of 1801.

Work is also going forward on atomic-powered aircraft. The Air Force has let two contracts for atomic power plants for planes. Development work is also being done on the frames of such planes.

HST Denies Charge Demos Fixed Farm Prices In 1948

Washington, May 15—(AP)—President Truman said today there is not a word of truth in a charge by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey that the administration "rigged" farm prices just before the 1948 election.

And Dewey knows there is not a word of truth in it, the president told a news conference.

Dewey, the Republican presidential candidate four years ago, said last Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press" television program that the administration caused farm prices to drop about 10 days before the 1948 election.

On other subjects, Truman told his news conference:

He may go to the Democratic national convention in Chicago to make a speech, but if he does it will be after the presidential and vice-presidential nominees have been chosen. He said any speech at the convention would start the whistle-stop campaign he plans to make for the Democratic ticket.

He does not think that he wants to comment on the steel case while it is before the supreme court. But when the court's decision has been handed down he will have plenty of comment.

This was in reply to a question as to whether he regards the United States as being at war. Acting Attorney General Philip Perlman likened the situation to war in arguments to the high court.

Solons Postpone Decision About Baseball Trust

Washington, May 15—(AP)—A House committee today postponed until next week a decision on what to do about bills exempting organized baseball from anti-trust laws.

The judiciary subcommittee on monopoly power met and began study of a tentative report but put off its approval until probably next Wednesday.

At the same time, however, the group made public a batch of statistics dealing with the financial affairs of the sport along with a big league spokesman's assertion that baseball is far from being "big business."

Paul Porter, special counsel for baseball, told the committee in a letter last January that baseball's financial rewards "are virtually negligible."

In 1950 the combined net income of the 16 major league teams was only 11 per cent, Porter wrote, and that didn't include the farm systems which showed a profit of only $394,000 from operating income of $40,953,000.

Nurse Admits Starting Fires In Hospital

Normal, Ill., May 15—(AP)—A 28-year-old nurse signed a statement today that she set four fires in Brokay hospital since April 22.

State's Attorney Clifford Coolidge of McLean county said the nurse, Rosemary Jeffers, admitted setting the fires after questioning by state and city fire officials.

No one was injured in the fires, three of which were minor.

The fourth was in a storage room, and patients had to be removed to another part of the building until it was brought under control.

One of the small fires was set in a wastebasket, another in a dust mop and the third at the bottom of a clothes chute.

Miss Jeffers was held in the county jail pending bond after a complaint charging arson was signed by James Wyse, deputy state fire marshal.

Coolidge said the nurse related "I don't know why I did it."

IRAQ REVENUE GETS INCREASE

Beirut, Lebanon, May 15—(AP)—The Iraq Petroleum company signed a new agreement with the Lebanese government today.

A communiqué issued by the government said the new agreement increases production of the Tripoli refinery, provides for payments in hard currency, and increases the government's revenues.

Firm Rule On Koje Isle Announced

Koje Island, Friday, May 16—(AP)—A new era of firm rule was proclaimed Thursday for Koje Island, ending soft measures that allowed Red prisoners to negotiate with their captors and flaunt "insulting signs."

Brig. Gen. Haydon Boatner made this clear to correspondents 24 hours after he had taken over the festering prison island—scene of two riots and the sensational seizure of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd.

Boatner declared he would, of course, treat strictly to the Geneva convention for humane treatment of prisoners, but that the Communists behind the barbed wire would have to learn who was boss.

Even as Boatner talked with correspondents, three prisoners tried to escape from their compounds, and one of them was shot by a guard.

Tanks, some of them equipped with flame throwers, stood ready to foil any mass escape attempt such as the Reds threatened at the height of the Dodd incident. Troops were on the alert. Camp authorities were confident they could prevent any big break by the 80,000 prisoners.

Boatner said he believed the Allies had given too lenient on Koje and had given prisoners "more, in my opinion, than required by the Geneva convention."

Boatner's stiff attitude doubtless was bolstered by the dissatisfaction shown by higher authorities in Tokyo and Washington over the way the Dodd kidnapping incident was handled.

Helicopter Aids Scientists In Picketed Plant

Pearl River, N.Y., May 15—(AP)—A helicopter airlift today brought food to some 100 scientists holed up in a strikebound wonder drug laboratory since yesterday.

They spent the night in sleeping bags rather than leave the Lederle laboratories and face what the company termed an angry-stone-throwing mob of 1,000 AFL pickets who might bar their re-entry.

Many of the stand-pat men inside the plant were described by the company as "first rank scientists."

"We are prepared to maintain our position," the company said in a statement on the bitter wage dispute that sparked the strike.

When milk and bread supplies ran low, the helicopter was pressed into service to fly in food.

The company said in a statement that the scientists "stayed in the plant 'to protect the life-saving drug and facilities for making them.'"

Actual production has been halted, however, the firm added.

The laboratory, a division of American Cyanamid Co., produces more than 300 drugs and is the sole producer of aureomycin, one of the newer wonder drugs used against many diseases. It also turns out penicillin and sulfa drugs.

The AFL International Chemical Workers struck the plant last yesterday, then massed its pickets on the 400-acre layout.

Tito Tightens Grip On Trieste's Zone As Retaliation

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, May 15—(AP)—Premier Marshal Tito's government abruptly tightened its grip on Trieste's zone by decree today, less than a week after the United States and Britain granted Italy broad administrative powers in zone A.

The Yugoslavs stopped just short of formal annexation of zone B, which they occupy under the Italian peace treaty of 1947. Deputy Foreign Minister Leo Mates hinted other measures in this country's interests would follow.

Acting on instructions from Belgrade, the Yugoslav military commander issued decrees:

1—Removing travel restrictions inside Yugoslavia for residents of zone B.

2—Abolishing the Italian regional people's committee, which has been the civil government of the zone, and transferring its powers to the people's committee of two districts, Kopar and Buje.

3—Giving the Yugoslav federal bank control over all financial affairs in the zone.

Tito declared Sunday that Yugoslavia was prepared to take measures necessary to protect this country's interests in zone B as the result of the understanding reached by U.S., Britain and Italian negotiators in London May 9.

That understanding gave Italy a bigger voice in the rule of the adjoining zone occupied by U.S. and British troops.

His government denounced the understanding in notes to the United States and Britain as illegal and a blow at Yugoslav rights in the 320-square-mile free territory, for which Italy and Yugoslavia are rival claimants.

YOU'LL HAVE TO CARRY YOUR OWN

Decatur, Ill., May 15—(AP)—From now on, if you want a bottle of an alcoholic beverage in Decatur, you'll have to go down to the liquor store and buy it.

City Counsel Byron M. Merris said in an opinion today that the practice of having liquor delivered to homes and paying for it there was illegal.

In an opinion requested by the Macon County Retail Liquor Dealers association, Merris said the delivery and payment in homes was a violation of the dram shop act.

Oil Strike Nears End

Washington, May 15—(AP)—The House voted tax relief to all members of Congress today. An Internal Revenue official said the plan would permit the lawmakers, in figuring their income tax, to deduct all expenses while in Washington.

The amendment was offered by Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, the Democratic leader in the House who also will head his party's platform-drafting committee. The amendment was adopted without a record vote.

It provides that for taxable years starting after next December 31, the place of residence of a member of Congress in the state, district or territory he represents "shall be considered to be his home" for purposes of the federal tax laws.

A quick query by reporters brought the Internal Revenue interpretation. The bureau spokesman said businessmen may now deduct business expenses incurred in Washington if they live elsewhere, but Congress members can't.

In the case of some congressmen who live in high-priced Washington hotels or apartments, the business deduction for that purpose alone could run into thousands. The deduction also would apply to the cost of food, transportation and other expenses while the member is attending sessions of Congress.

Frequently Congress stays in session almost an entire year.

Congressmen now get a $2,500 tax-free expense account on top of their $12,500 annual salary. However this exemption is to expire Jan. 1.

In another move to give congressmen, the House also voted to give its members up to $900 annually for rental of office space in their home districts if free space can't be provided in federal buildings back home.

The cost of this proposal alone could exceed $40,000 annually if all members took advantage of it.

This vote, as the one on tax relief, was on an amendment to the annual bill providing funds to run Congress, the Library of Congress and the government printing office.

Governor Replies To Draft Query 'No Comment'

Springfield, Ill., May 15—(AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson said today he is opposed to any movement to draft him for the Democratic presidential nomination.

When reporters asked him if he would accept a draft, he replied, "no comment."

Stevenson told a news conference he thought Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.) would be "excellent presidential timber."

And he said that if Douglas were available for the Democratic nomination there "might well be a move" within the Illinois national convention delegation to back Douglas for the presidency.

Douglas has said he is not a candidate and is supporting Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

"I certainly have the utmost respect for his (Douglas') qualifications," Stevenson said.

In Chicago, Jacob M. Arvey, Democratic national committeeman for Illinois, said today he did not believe Stevenson would reject the nomination. Arvey told newsmen before a meeting of the Democratic convention arrangements committee:

"If the convention nominates him I don't believe he would say no."

Stevenson disclosed that he himself is still "under pressure" to run for president, even though he has repeated that he could not accept the nomination.

Stevenson, who returned this week from California where he inspected Illinois national guard troops, said he was "very much impressed" by what he saw.

"The men looked very well and their morale is excellent," he said. "The mothers and families of the men at Camp Cooke would find much comfort in what I saw there."

He said he supposes the troops will be ready for assignment about next October but has no idea where they will be sent.

Army Pay Raise Bill To Truman For Signing

Washington, May 15—(AP)—Congress sent to President Truman late today legislation boosting pay and allowances in the military services.

If Truman signs it by the end of this month, the raises will become effective with this month's pay vouchers.

Intended to help offset higher living costs, they range from $3 monthly for privates and seamen to $65 for two-star generals and admirals.

The senate approving a compromise measure accepted by the House earlier in the day.

IT'S TIME NOW TO MAP POLICY IF GERMAN PEACE CONTRACT FAILS

The weeks ahead are critical for the European defense community, and hence for the security of the entire free world. This is so because Germany's role in Western Europe is hanging in the balance.

Chancellor Adenauer, who appears sincerely devoted to the goal of German cooperation with the West, is currently engaged in trying to win the support of his own government coalition for the so-called peace contract with France, Britain and the United States.

Once the German opposition to the proposed Western terms of settlement came chiefly from the Social Democrats under the leadership of nationalistic Kurt Schumacher. Today it is more widespread, extending into the three governing parties, including Adenauer's Christian Democratic Union.

If Adenauer cannot successfully quell this opposition, then prospects for adoption of the peace contract are dark. And without a peace contract it would be folly to entertain bright hopes of a European defense army embracing important German units.

One European said recently that if Germany's position in the Western European structure cannot be worked out by summer, the whole timetable of Western defense could be virtually wrecked and "we would be back where we were in 1947."

The outlook for Western solidarity is not helped by the recent British Labor Party statement setting almost impossible conditions upon the inclusion of a German force in the European defense army. Britain, of course, is not a member of that proposed organization, nor is the Labor Party in power. But this potent minority force in a key Western ally cannot be ignored.

Adenauer's task is immensely complicated by the German unity issue which the Soviet Union has been exploiting so effectively in late months. As many European experts have repeatedly pointed out, any real conference on German unification would almost certainly shove the peace contract and the European army project into the background.

With this formidable array of obstacles staring us in the face, we may fairly inquire whether American statesmen have gone past the stage of vague thoughts about alternatives.

What do we propose to do if we get neither the peace contract and German army participation nor a sound program of unity?

It does not seem too early to give serious attention to the possibilities. Obviously we would have to continue occupying Germany on much the same basis as today. What we would do to beef up Western defenses in the absence of German units is less certain. In any event, the answer surely would be costly, and demanding upon Western resources in men and materials.

The critical alarm now being voiced over this problem may be greater than the facts warrant. Perhaps a solution will be reached in the end. But it is pretty risky to assume that, and to have nothing in mind as a substitute policy.

Ordinarily prudence dictates that we prepare for any eventuality. If we do not, the Russians will be the clear victors in this phase of the cold war. If the peace contract fails and Germans stay out of a European army, Russia will be a partial victor anyway. For even though they may not draw Germany into their own orbit, they will at least have helped to prevent us from tying the Germans more effectively to a Western Europe that sorely needs them.

WHAT ARE THE GRASS ROOTS WHISPERING ABOUT?

Kansas City—(P)—Leaves from a midwest travel diary:

Politics has replaced corn and wheat as the major crop for 1952 in the great American middle west.

Out here where the grass roots grow a little deeper, the controversy is particularly keen, because a number of the top presidential candidates spring from these heart states of the nation.

Here is a sampling of comments:

A businessman—"I am for Taft and so are most businessmen I know. Sure, we made a lot of money under the Democrats. But under Taft maybe we will get to keep some of it."

A newspaper publisher—"People are tired of the same old faces, the young people in particular. That's why Eisenhower is so popular."

A housewife—"I hope I get to vote for Gov. Warren. Anybody who can raise as nice a family as he has must be a good man."

A farmer—"We know where Taft stands. He's got more common sense than the rest of them put together. A bar owner—"That Kefauver has more appeal than the politicians realize. But last year I made $400 betting on the horses and this year I can't even place a bet because of him. Do you think I'm going to vote for Kefauver?"

A veteran political reporter—"Don't let anyone kid you that Truman really wants to quit. He's acting more like a candidate than he ever did."

The square dance revival that swept America a few years ago is still going strong. It has created a new sideline occupation—"Square Dance Calling."

One bank employee makes $25 a night or more calling the intricate turns at community dances.

Hollywood—(NEA)—Behind the Screen: Dorothy Lamour is back in a sarong after eight years, with a question:

"What's so wrong with a sarong?"

There was a big sarong-burning party when Dorothy abdicated as the movies' jungle queen but now she's confessing: "It was a good publicity gag but I never really thought I'd escape sarong roles. I imagine I'll still be doing sarong pictures when I'm wearing a Mother Hubbard."

It's back to the South Sea Island lagoons and the fish and the poi for Dorothy as a Balinese princess with Bob Hope and Bing Crosby in "The Road to Bali." And she said it's the best role she's ever had in a "Road" picture.

"I make my entrance on Page 10 instead of on Page 45," she beamed. The Balinese-type sarong may not be as revealing as the ones Dorothy once wore, but it's a lot sexier.

"The wolf whistles around the lot," she whispered, "seem to be much lower and longer."

Esther Williams' talks with Mike Todd about starring in a big aquatic at Jones Beach this summer—first report here—were getting closer to the pen-reaching stage. She flew to New York at Todd's expense to get her feet wet in the details.

Keeps Fires Burning

If the Maureen O'Hara - Will Price marriage cracks up—as rumored—friends claim Maureen can't be blamed. She's made a ceaseless effort, they say, to keep the home fires burning.

Bruce Cabot and Francesca de Scaffa, who reconciled last December, broke up, then reconciled again, are expecting the storm in September.

Pala of Shirley Temple are predicting a TV career for her by the time her new son celebrates his six-month birthday. The offers are pouring in.

Barbara Hale and Columbia are calling it a day. Greta Garbo, of all people, is sporting a poodle haircut. Don't be surprised if Desi Arnaz is announced as the producer of Eve Arden's "Our Miss Brooks" TV films.

Jayne Wymann's next movie for Columbia will be "Happy Birthday," from the Helen Hayes stage hit. Ben Blue turned down a role in Fox's "The Farmer Takes a Wife." His explanation: "I wanted an actor—I'm a comic."

There's a buzz that Stanley Kramer will make the heavy in "Caine Mutiny," a Merchant Marine officer instead of an Army pilot in order to appease the Pentagon.

Watch for at least one "Bongobongo, I Don't Want to Leave the Congo" dance from Gene Kelly in "Invitation to a Dance." Gene recorded hours of native chanting and drumming on his visit with wife Betty to French Morocco.

Coburn Has Secret

Charles Coburn won't talk to publishers about his memoirs, but he's secretly putting his life story on paper. One of the characters in the early part of the book will be a young actress named Theodora de Copnet, who was a member of the famous repertory company headed by Coburn and his wife. Some years later, Theodora came to Hollywood and blossomed into a star under the name of Theda Bara.

Arthur Rubinstein bowed out of the cost of Fox's "Tonight We Sing" on grounds that acting was too difficult for him. Now the studio's frantically searching for another famous pianist to replace him.

Hattie McDaniel, faced with mounting medical bills at the eight-month mark of her illness, has sold her famous mansion. The "Oscar" winner is now permitted to leave her bed for a wheelchair twice a week.

Josephine Baker arrived in Hollywood for her Cro's opening loaded down with six trunks. There's money in record albums. Loretta Young, who waxed "The Littlest Angel" years ago, just received her latest royalty check—$4000.

Jon Steele's definition of inflation: "In 1929 you went broke, so you ate hamburger. Now you eat hamburger and go broke."

Charles Addams, who specializes in those horror cartoons for the New Yorker magazine, will be asked by Boris Karloff to design the future for his New York apartment. In Hollywood for U's "The Black Castle," Boris told me:

★ DR. JORDAN SAYS ★
Check Shortness of Breath—
It Can Lead to Complications
BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Before me are three letters asking for information about emphysema. "Is emphysema rare?" one person asks. "So few people have ever heard of it," another says that he is short of breath and cannot walk for 50 feet without complete fatigue. He adds that he has been a glass-blower all his life and doctors say he has emphysema.

The subject is indeed an interesting one, since, judging by studies made after death, about one person in 20 has this condition, although probably far fewer show any signs of it during life.

You perhaps want to know what emphysema is. It is basically a loss of the elasticity of the tissues of the lung, which means that all the air is not emptied out when a person exhales. Thus, when the condition is advanced, a person may not get enough air from breathing and develop shortness of breath rather easily if the need for air is increased by exercise.

There are many conditions which can lead to this loss of elasticity and dilation of the breathing cells. Any chronic infection of the lungs—chronic asthma, or a serious chest deformity—can bring on emphysema a comparatively early in life, although there is perhaps a tendency in all of us to have less elasticity in the lung tissues as we grow older. It was formerly thought that glass-blowers and musicians who play wind instruments were particularly liable to develop emphysema, but apparently this is not true. There are, however, occupational hazards which increase the chances of developing emphysema, such as being exposed to certain kinds of poisonous dusts, or hazards which lead to infection of the lungs.

TREAT INFECTION PROMPTLY
There is a good deal which can be done for most victims of emphysema. One of the most important, of course, is to treat, or try to prevent, infections or allergies which are making the condition worse. Acute respiratory infections should be treated promptly with bed rest and often with penicillin or one of its relatives. Drugs can be used to help improve the ventilation of the lungs and many patients with chronic emphysema are enormously helped if they can spend the colder months in a mild climate.

Emphysema is so serious of itself, because of the complications which it can produce, that it should not be allowed to run on without adequate attention.

Says Dodd's Capture
Displays Army Brass'
Talent To Bungle Job

Washington, May 15—(P)—The high army brass in Korea has displayed an astonishing talent for making a mess, starting with the capture of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd and in all that followed.

First the general, commander of the prisoner of war camps on Kohje Island, let himself get maneuvered into a position where his communist prisoners could take him.

Then his successor had toicker for his release. This was Brig. Gen. Charles F. Colson, Eighth Army commander Gen. James A. Van Fleet pounced Dodd while he was still captive.

Colson didn't last long. He's been bounced too. To get Dodd back alive, Colson agreed to such extraordinary concessions.

Eighth army headquarters then added to the confusion by trying to wrap a little secrecy around what had happened.

Newsmen Banned
Newsmen at first weren't allowed to see Dodd at all after his release. The explanation: An investigation was being made. Then Dodd was permitted to read a prepared statement on his capture but couldn't answer newsmen's questions.

Even so Dodd managed to get into conflict with the new boss of the whole Korean fighting, Gen. Mark Clark—who-as successor to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway—arrived in Tokyo just in time to inherit the mess.

Dodd said the concessions were of minor importance. But Clark later said the Colson concessions were made under duress and were "undiluted blackmail and any comments made by General Colson as a result of such demands should be interpreted accordingly."

Colson Paid Worthless
And today Clark said the agreement made by Colson "has no validity whatsoever." Clark said Colson had no authority "to purport to accept any of the vicious and false charges upon which the Communist demands were based."

Woman Whose 'Innocent' Talk
Contains Sting Loses Friends

It takes friends quite a while to find out that Margie is really a dangerous woman.

At first meeting, and often for a long time afterward, Margie's wide-eyed interest in other people's lives seems just that—genuine and harmless interest.

Until they know her much, much better her friends don't censor what they say within Margie's hearing.

Her questions somehow manage to seem ingenuous, rather than prying.

Her comments about people often carry a hidden sting, but that isn't noticed at first either, so deftly is the sting hidden in a bouquet of flowery phrases.

"I get such a kick out of Sue," she'll begin. Then she'll build Sue up. That is, she'll build her up to a certain point.

But before whatever anecdote she is telling about Sue is finished there'll be something told or some comment made that will give Sue feet of clay.

FRIENDS BEGIN TO SEE THE LIGHT
And it will be the kind of characterization that is remembered long after the opening build-up given Sue is forgotten.

After some time it begins to dawn on first one friend and then another that Margie almost always tucks a derogatory comment in with her verbal bouquets.

And pretty soon the friends begin to see that Margie's questions aren't as innocent as they seem. Margie's questions help her to gather the information she spreads around.

After the information they have handed out so blithely to Margie comes back to them from several sources in the form of "Margie was saying the other day," her friends begin to get a bit leery.

★ EDSON IN WASHINGTON ★
Eisenhower Neckties at Public
Throat Cut Taft's Circulation

Washington—(NEA)—A new system of presidential poll-taking has now been perfected. It's known as the necktie poll. The name comes from sales returns on the various political neckties now being hawked around the country. Some are decorated with coonskin caps, others with "I Like Ike," still others with "Mr. Republican" tails.

Up till mid-April, sales of the Kefauver tie led the Eisenhower and Taft tie sales by an overall lead of 30 per cent. In the South, the Kefauver tie sold 50 per cent better than the other two. But in the mid-west the Taft tie sold best.

In the last few weeks, however, the sale charts have changed. Sales of the Eisenhower tie have jumped to 20 per cent over the Taft and Kefauver numbers. Even in the South, the Eisenhower tie is the sales leader by as much as 10 per cent.

The sales manager of the company that makes these ties in New York says that they are the best-selling item they have. He says he supposes that the big jump in Eisenhower tie sales can be tied right in with the announcement of Ike's resignation.

Clarence Randall, president of Inland Steel Co. and a chief spokesman for the steel industry in its campaign against President Truman's seizure, was asked what he would have done if he were president and if he would accept the Republican presidential nomination at a National Press Club luncheon.

For economy and glamor, combine leftover chicken with Swiss cheese sauce and serve on fresh asparagus. (Broccoli or any other green vegetable in season can be used instead.)

For double economy, make the sauce with nonfat dry milk. Your grocer has it in one-pound packages which make five quarts of non-fat milk for around nine cents a quart. The Department of Agriculture reports that nonfat dry milk is now in abundant supply.

Chicken Supreme
(Makes 2 cups)

One and one-half cups water, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 cup nonfat dry milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 pound Swiss cheese, shredded, 1 cup chopped chicken.

Pour water into top of double boiler. Combine flour, nonfat dry milk, salt and nutmeg. Sprinkle on surface of water. Beat with rotary beater until blended. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until thickened. Stir in shredded chicken. Cook, stirring constantly, until cheese is melted. Mix in chicken and continue cooking until heated through. Serve over cooked asparagus, broccoli or other green vegetable.

$5,000 Damages Awarded By Jury In Wreck Death

Damages of $5,000 were awarded by a circuit court jury for the death of Mrs. Martha Alice Patterson in an automobile-truck collision, in a sealed verdict rendered at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. The verdict found one defendant, Ashley Gardner, guilty as charged in the suit and fixed the amount of damages against him.

A motion to dismiss the complaint as to Frank Melton, truck driver, and the Hayes Truck Lines Company, was made by the plaintiff before the suit went to the jury, and the motion was allowed.

Gardner was driver of an automobile in which Mrs. Patterson was a passenger. The tragedy occurred last September on U. S. 36-54, east of the city.

The suit was brought by Betty Jean Patterson, daughter of the decedent, and asked a maximum of $20,000.

A lawsuit of Lois Thompson et al. vs. Robert C. Detweiler et al., docketed for trial Wednesday of this week, was settled out of court.

The suit of Harry H. Koch, adm. vs. Alice Loeffler et al., set for trial Thursday, was cancelled from the setting.

Peter Drainer 95 This Week; Resides Alone

Jerseyville—Peter C. Drainer of Westwoods, Jersey county, will observe the 95th anniversary of his birth May 17th at his farm home. Drainer, in spite of his extreme age, resides alone and carries on with the ability of a man many years his junior. For the past thirty-one years he has lived by himself amid the quiet of his farm surroundings.

The farm belonging to Drainer on which he resides is composed of forty acres. He also owns another 172 acres which is not far from his home. The land is farmed by a son who lives nearby. The son is H. H. Drainer and the latter visits his father daily. Peter C. Drainer built all of the present buildings on the site, a two room structure.

The home place is situated eight miles west of Jerseyville and a short distance north of St. Mary's church. Drainer has spent his entire life on this spot. He aided his father, the later Peter C. Drainer Sr., in building the original home on the site, a two room structure.

He assisted his father in clearing the land and forty-five years ago, another five rooms were added to the original two room dwelling.

As recently as two years ago, Drainer drove his car, a 1927 Chevrolet on the public highways. He was issued a driver's license by the State of Illinois when he was past ninety years of age.

Belles on Their Toes

The 27 boys, their drivers and co-scoutmasters Junior Davidmeyer and Grojean, will camp out each night of the entire trip. The group will travel east through Indianapolis and Columbus, in each of which they will have a police escort through the city to economize on time. They will drive over the famed Pennsylvania Turnpike on the expedition. On the return trip the group will use the equally famous Skyline Drive in the Appalachians.

The entire trip will last ten days, with five days in Washington, where the scouts will camp out on grounds to be designated.

The following men of this city have volunteered to drive cars: Dean Klump, Rover Turner, Baird Hopper, Joe Grojean, Walter Hamilton and Wilford Queen.

A side trip to Annapolis and the United States Naval Academy also is planned. The boys will go aboard a warship or a yawl while there.

The expedition will leave Jacksonville at dawn, May 31. The group will arrive back here June 8.

The group also plans to attend the annual Alumni banquet and dance to be held at the Presbyterian church and high school gymnasium that night.

BRITISH BIRTHS DROP

London—(P)—Britain's birth rate in 1951 was the lowest in 11 years, latest official statistics disclosed. It fell by 3 per 1,000 of population compared with 1950. Of every 1,000 live births, 47 were illegitimate.

Deaths during the year rose to 12.5 per 1,000 compared with 11.6 in 1950. The increase was attributed to a severe influenza outbreak last March.

DOCTORING AT NIGHT ONLY

Vienna—(P)—Czechoslovakia is pressing its workers so hard, those who are sick must work by day and receive medical treatment at night. Prague newspaper report that a "night clinic" has been set up in one factory in Bratislava to "reduce absenteeism." Those who are sick but who can do some work must report to the clinic at night, then go to their jobs as usual during the day.

COPS POLITE TO BURGLAR

Effingham, Ill.—(P)—Two city policemen politely remarked their cruiser so a green car could leave the driveway of a motor firm.

Then—checking to see that the firm was locked up for the night—they learned the safe had been tampered with and $12 was missing from its softdrink machine. Gone too was the suspect—in the green car the cops had so obligingly let go by.

ANCIENT TOWN BEING DUG UP

Galeata, Italy—(P)—Extensive excavations are under way near here to uncover the ancient Roman town of Mevanola, buried by a flood in the early centuries after Christ.

Prof. Enrico Arias, archeologist of Northern Italy, said that for the first time in this part of Italy an entire Roman town will be brought to light after being buried for almost 15 centuries under 10 feet of sand.

Mulching Hailed as Vital Aid to All Garden Plants

Tomatoes Should Always Be Mulched to Keep Weeds Down and the Soil Moist.

While the leaves of lawns, vegetables, and most flowers demand sunshine, and lots of it, researchers agree that shade on the soil over their roots is good for practically all plants. At first glance this might seem a difficult prescription to fill, but it can be done by covering the soil with a mulch.

The latest argument in behalf of mulching is that it prevents erosion. A recent government bulletin says: "Raindrops come hurtling out of the sky and hit the soil so hard that the soil is splashed up on your lettuce. Scientists have measured the splash and found that it may be as high as two feet. Then, the detached soil may be carried off in the water which has accumulated from the rain. Or, those fine particles of soil in the water will settle down into the pores of the soil and fill them up. That will prevent the water soaking into the soil as rapidly as it should. When water doesn't soak into the soil it accumulates on the surface and ultimately has to flow somewhere."

Happily, there is something the average gardener can do about the raindrop or splash erosion. He can put a mulch on his garden. All of us would like to have enough straw to put a layer of three or four inches over the garden. But, often, we can't get the straw or it costs too much. But we can take the mowings from around the edge of the garden and put them between the rows. Later the lawn clippings can be spread out between the rows. An hour or so spent with a hand sickle cutting down weeds and spreading them in the rows will pay handsomely.

"Men who have gardened for years, but who were not taught to use mulches continuously, express surprise at what a wonderful help they have at last found. It prevents the raindrop erosion by intercepting the raindrops and leads the water down to the soil gently. It keeps the weeds down and lowers the soil temperature in the hot summer days and helps conserve the moisture which goes into the soil."

Paper mulch, and even stones and slabs of concrete have been experimented with. But tests by the Ohio state experiment station, emphasizing the importance of soil aeration, indicate that the best mulching materials allow free circulation of air through the top eight inches of soil.

Mulches of fresh organic material, such as manure, straw, alfalfa, peat moss, lawn clippings and others, stabilize the granular structure of soils and prevent surface compaction.

Waste lumber is used by some gardeners, to shade the ground between rows. By laying down boards when planting the garden, and walking on them rather than the soil, the ground is kept loose, and by shifting the boards between rows, weeds can be killed without hoeing.

Excellent results can be obtained from a heavy mulch of dry lawn clippings, applied a little at a time. The first application should be well mixed with the top soil; and then it may be built up to several inches in thickness, so that weeds are kept down and evaporation checked, but at the same time rains are allowed to penetrate the soil. Tomatoes, especially like a mulch of this kind.

Methodist Church Class Meeting Held At Waverly

Waverly—The Mizpah class of the Methodist church met Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. Bronson Smith and Mrs. Roy Mitchell as hostesses. Mrs. Newton presided.

Mrs. Smith conducted devotions, using the text, "Honor Thy Father and Mother," and read portions from the book "Christ and Fine Arts," pertaining to mothers.

The roll call of a Bible Mother was answered by 17 members and two guests, Mrs. John Anderson and Mrs. Helen Turnbull.

A beautiful memorial center of white and purple flowers and white candles had been arranged by the hostesses in memory of the class president, Mrs. Sallie Brown. The candles were lit and the class stood and observed a moment of silence followed by the reading of "They're Waiting for Us" by Mrs. Smith.

The class voted on the motion to send $5.00 to Gordon Hankins family, whose home and contents were destroyed by fire.

Mrs. Helen Turnbull spoke of her recent Mediterranean cruise, especially life aboard the ship, and incidents of some of the shore trips. Pictures, pamphlets and mementos of the trip was enjoyed by all.

A musical contest conducted by Mrs. Roy Mitchell was won by Mrs. Leslie Redfern and Mrs. James Smart. The refreshment committee served ice cream, cookies and mints.

MORGAN - SCOTT HOME BUREAU NEWS

Wear The Right Shoes For Housework

"O! my aching feet!" is a cry heard too often among homemakers. High-heeled shoes and other types not suited to the strain of housework set the stage for many foot troubles.

When women feel they can't

Better Meals for Less

Boruff Maytag Co.
 219 S. Sandy Phone 363

waste the high-heeled shoes they've discarded for dress wear, they wear them for working at home. Shoes with run-down heels and improperly fitted soles cause many foot and posture problems.

There are occupational reasons for foot troubles. The average homemaker walks about seven miles a day in taking care of her normal household duties. For many, these are seven miles of pain and discomfort. Well-made, supporting shoes are as necessary for a homemaker as they are for a nurse who is on her feet all day. When shoes pinch or squeeze, or rub up and down when we walk, they cause us to tire easily. We are much more apt to have an accident when we are tired.

High-heeled shoes are the sinners in a large majority of home accidents. When a heel catches in the hem of a dress, it can cause an upset that may have serious consequences. High heels and stairways don't mix either; that combination has given too many people broken legs and other major injuries.

Comfortable Working Heights Important—Women Study Problem
 Illinois homemakers are not accepting the so-called standard heights for kitchen work surfaces and sinks. Instead they are studying the situation as it applies to them as individuals and are then making their decisions.

Women are concerned about undue fatigue. They know that some of it results from uncomfortable working heights for doing routine, day-by-day tasks. In order to correct the situation, they experiment with various working heights until they determine ones at which they can work comfortably. Such simple devices as a pile of books and a bowl and beater are used in making the tests.

Once a comfortable height has been determined, changes are planned. Frequently the adjustment can be made easily and for a small sum of money. For example, if a table is too high, it can be lowered by shortening the legs; if it is too low, it can be raised by adding wooden blocks to the legs. The height of a movable cabinet can be changed the same way.

Women tend to select work heights that are too high rather than too low. The correct working height depends on the job to be done, as well as on the stature of the worker. For example, a higher work surface is more comfortable for rolling out dough than for beating a cake. The dough is rolled on the work surface; a cake is beaten above the work surface.

"Alaska" is a corruption of a native word meaning "the great country," according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

PRO-CHINESE TEXTBOOK REVIEW SET

Kuala Lumpur, Malaya —(P)—Textbooks used in Malayan Chinese schools are too much devoted to Chinese nationalism, according to Malayan education authorities.

They have decided to "Malayanize" books used in Chinese school. Education authorities have appointed 18 Malayan education experts to advise on steps to be taken.

ROODHOUSE

Roodhouse—Mrs. Ruth Smith of Springfield was a weekend guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McIver.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ingie, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Bigham and Mrs. Irene Foley spent Sunday in Bloomington with the latter's daughter, Mrs. Everett Lovell, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Major Gilmore, east of Roodhouse, have purchased from Mrs. Robert Barber her farm home at the east edge of the city and will move there in July. Mrs. Barber has bought residence property from Paul Ballard where she will make her home.

Attending the dinner meeting of the A.A.U.W. at the Methodist church in Carrollton Monday night were the following members and guests: Mesdames Merle Mackey, Arthur T. Broche, James Cressy, Katherine Gilmore, Ethelyn Cuddy, John Roberts, W. J. Reilly, W. A. Wilkinson and Miss Mabel Hopkins.

POLICE NAB STOLEN AUTOS

Montreal —(P)—Police recovered all but one of the 563 automobiles stolen in this city during January and February.

RIDING HIS HOBBY — Peter Davis, 4, of London, England, would rather toy with chessmen than play with toys. The precocious child could sing at the age of one, draw at two, write when he was three, and now is able to use the typewriter. He plays the piano and has composed one piece of music. He is also adept at solving mathematical problems mentally.

Baptist Youth In Big Rally At White Hall

White Hall—The annual Baptist Youth Rally, comprising the youth of 20 churches in the West Central Baptist association, was held Monday night at the First Baptist church here. Two hundred delegates were in attendance.

An annual prize for attendance is given each year and was won by members from Kane this year.

Miss Georgia Bonnell was guest speaker and a committee from the host church served refreshments of sandwiches, punch and cookies.

The next meeting of the group will be June 30 with a picnic at the Carrollton park.

Edward Taylor Of New Berlin Weds

Miss Romona Schmidt of Reynolds, Ill., became the bride of Edward W. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Taylor of New Berlin at six o'clock the evening of May 9 in the chapel of the Wesley Methodist church in Bloomington. Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Schmidt of Reynolds are the parents of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length dress of white imported Chantilly lace over satin. The strapless bodice was covered with a long sleeved jacket. The billowing skirt was bordered with pleated nylon which was repeated at the pointed sleeves of the jacket over the wrists. Her fingertip veil of white illusion was secured to a Juliet cap adorned with pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

In the bridal party were Miss Eleanor Wilcox of New Berlin, cousin of the bridegroom as maid of honor; Mrs. Charles Wood of Reynolds, sister of the bride as bridesmatron; Thomas Siver of Martelle, Iowa, best man and ushers James Kuhn, New Berlin, Charles Wilcox, New Berlin and cousins of the groom and Stanley Schmidt of Reynolds, brother of the bride. Bonnie Schmidt, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Jerry Parchert, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

A reception was held in the church lounge. The couple left for a short wedding trip. The bride is a junior at the Illinois Wesleyan University. Mr. Taylor attended the New Berlin high school and Iowa State College. He has been engaged in farming with his father. On May 13 he reported to the armed forces.

Dinner To Honor All Morgan Gold Star Relatives

One hundred and three dinner invitations have been sent to Morgan county Gold Star parents or representatives by the Blue Star members of the War Dads and Auxiliaries for the annual dinner honoring parents or next of kin of those who have given their lives while in service. The dinner and program will be at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 27 at the American Legion Home.

There are thirty-one Gold Star parents in the organization. The dinner is to honor all qualified Gold Star parents or representatives in the county. If there is anyone that has not received an invitation it is an oversight. They are asked to contact Mrs. Roy Newberg, chairman of the arrangements, by phoning R-5722 or her committee members, Mrs. Amelia Losch, 2001-W; Mrs. Lavada Crawford, 2306-Y or Mrs. Fay Daniels, 2240. After the dinner there will be an appropriate program.

SCOUT TROOP 111 TO HAVE OVERNIGHT HIKE THIS WEEKEND

Boy Scout troop 111 had their regular meeting Tuesday evening at seven-thirty at the Congregational church.

The meeting opened with the presentation of the flag by Michael Bellinson. A short business meeting was conducted. The troops tents were inspected and packed in preparation for an overnight camping trip Friday and Saturday of this week to a farm near Jacksonville.

At the conclusion of the meeting the scouts went to the basement of the church for games.

Wm. P. Batty Of Greenfield Dies: Rites Saturday

William Purnell Batty, retired business man of Greenfield, died at 11 p.m. Wednesday at his home.

Mr. Batty was born near Berdan, south of White Hall, March 16, 1884, the son of William and Hester Rhodes Batty. On Sept. 12, 1904 he was united in marriage with Bertha Ann Reynolds at Carrollton. He is survived by his widow and five children. Two daughters, Mrs. Frank Hill and Mrs. Robert Cole and three sons, Everett, Elmer and Harold, all living in Greenfield or the vicinity. There are eight grandchildren. Two brothers survive, Frank Batty of White Hall and Roy Batty of Carrollton and three sisters, Mrs. Laurence J. Powell of Carrollton and Mrs. Mamie Hickox and Mrs. Pearl Spears both of Jacksonville.

Mr. Batty was a farmer most of his life. He moved to Greenfield a number of years ago and opened a Harness and Shoe Repair shop, retiring when poor health intervened. He was a member of the Rubicon Methodist church, northeast of Greenfield.

The body was taken to the Shields Memorial Home.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Greenfield Methodist church with Rev. George E. Mayo officiating. Interment will be made in the Oakwood cemetery.

The business houses in Greenfield will close during the time of service.

Junior Woman's Club Planning Parade May 30

A special meeting was held Wednesday evening by a group of members of the Jacksonville Junior Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Jo Davis on Pine street.

For the second year the club will engage in promotion work for more and larger parades in Jacksonville. Plans were discussed and decisions made for the annual Jacksonville Memorial day parade on Friday, May 30.

Sixty-eight post cards were printed to be sent to service organizations and auxiliaries, civic clubs, schools, sororities and patriotic organizations. A number of groups have already informed they will participate in one of the largest patriotic parades to be staged in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Helen Decker, is chairman for the second year, and will be assisted by Jo Davis, Katherine Long, Velma Wise, Helen Riemann, Dorothy Wimberly, Paula Mitchell and Betty Price.

Cards Of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks for cards, flowers and other expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement, the death of our husband, father and grandfather, Pete Gaines.

Mrs. Nettie Gaines, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gaines and family.

Mrs. Charles Watson and the Watson Family wish to thank all neighbors and friends who assisted in any way after the death of Charles Watson. These kind deeds will always be remembered.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE!

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, May 15—(P)—The highest selling price since October 1 was registered in hogs today as a very active market pushed prices up as much as $1.00 a hundred pounds. One small lot of butchers sold at $21.75.

Most weights and grades of cattle were slow and steady. The sheep market also was steady.

Butcher hogs were 75 cents to $1.00 higher and sows around 75 cents higher. Most choice butchers sold from $21.25 to $21.50 with heavier weights ranging from $18.50 to $20.00. Sows 400 pounds and under topped at $18.75. There was an early clearance and shippers took 2,500 head.

Commercial to choice yearlings and steers weighing up to 1,150 pounds were moderately active and steady to 25 cents higher. Cows were steady to 25 cents lower. Most good and choice steers sold from $30.50 to $35.00. Good and choice heifers topped at $34.74. Commercial and utility cows brought a $25.50 top. Bulls topped at $28.00 and prime vealers at $38.00.

Although traders were eager to buy, choice and prime slaughter steers were absent from the market. Utility to low good old crop wooled lambs were fully steady at $23.00 to $27.00. Slaughter ewes were weak at $12.00 on the outside. Choice light ewes topped at $13.00.

Salable receipts included 7,000 hogs, 2,000 cattle, 300 calves and 500 sheep.

Northern Teams Big Favorites In State Prep Track-Field Meet

FAN BREEZES

BY BOB MERRIS

Five Jacksonville high school track and field teams will be in the state cinder track meet this morning for the 1952 sectional tournament. The teams are: Crimsons, Ron Kemp, 100 yard dash and relay; Dick Barnes, pole vault; Norvell Cannon, Fred Goodey and George Jones, who join Kemp in the 800 yard relay. ISD has Bill Van Sparker in the broad jump and the 100 yard dash.

This is the largest contingent to represent Jacksonville on the state cinders that we can remember. Once again for the record they are: Crimsons Ron Kemp, 100 yard dash and relay; Dick Barnes, pole vault; Norvell Cannon, Fred Goodey and George Jones, who join Kemp in the 800 yard relay. ISD has Bill Van Sparker in the broad jump and the 100 yard dash.

In checking over times, distances and heights of other state track contestants it is easily seen that the local lads will have to do better than ever to make a dent in the record books. But we'll be on hand to root for the kids, and if a gust of wind is needed, so shall little Dick Barnes two feet higher in the pole vault, we'll supply two lungs.

Local athletic loyalty will be divided today between track and baseball. Bob Kraushaar's Jacksonville nine stands a good chance to whip Taylorville at Lanphier tonight, and move on into the sectional tournament next week. Staunton is supposed to have the powerhouse in central Illinois prep circles. If we remember correctly, it was at Staunton that the 1950 Crimson nine dropped a 5-2 decision to Granite City in the sectional.

This has been a good year for prep sports in Jacksonville. A good showing in state competition by the local track and field teams and the baseball final at Peoria in two weeks for the Crimson nine, would make the school year a sensation. After that, we run out of adjectives.

Stock car races tonight will be doubly attractive because of the rain-enforced holiday last Friday. Sonny Gross, young Quincy driver, has racked up three major victories in as many meets this season. Local pilots claim that they'll change the complexion of things on the Morgan county track to-night. Wait and see.

The County Cavalier Motorcycle club plans to purchase traffic control signs for all local schools with its profit from the races here Sunday. A very noble gesture. Let's back it.

Slammin' Sammy Takes Early Lead In New York Meet

By Will Grimley
New Rochelle, N.Y., May 15.—(P)—Sam Snead, canning two eagles, blazed a five-under par 67 and piled up a staggering total of 22 plus-points today to capture the first round lead in the star-spangled round robin golf tournament.

It was the biggest point production ever achieved on the opening day of this 15-year-old mathematical links bazaar.

The rhythmic swinging West Virginian registered a 34-33 over the water-logged 6,533-yard Wykagyl course and burned off some of his famed opposition, playing in the same foursome.

Snead, PGA and Masters titleholder, amassed his point advantage at the expense of British defending champion Max Faulkner, defending champion Roberto De Vincenzo of Argentina and Byron Nelson, the golf king of the 40's.

Faulkner and De Vincenzo each had a 73 and wound up with minus 1. Nelson shot a 73 and was minus two.

Champaign, Ill.—(Special)—While performances in district competition indicate Northern Illinois schools should continue domination of the team crown, top favorite to win an individual championship in 58th Annual Interscholastic Track and Field competition Friday and Saturday in Memorial Stadium is Larry Staff, 250-pound shot putter from Vandalia.

Staff not only has thrown nearly three feet farther than his nearest rival, Mel Thomas of East St. Louis, but should be duplicate his district toss of 58 feet 8 inches, he'll crack the state record 56 feet 5 inches set by John Bauer of Benton in 1950.

Evansville and LaGrange, each of which qualified 10 men for the finals, join the Chicago leaders, Wendell Phillips and Austin high schools as team favorites in a field so well divided that a low total probably will win.

High Jump Mark In Danger
Only record, other than the shot, actually in danger this week will be the high jump mark of 6 feet 5 inches set by Lowell Spurgeon of Centralia in 1938. Cal Boyd, Oak Park jumper, who went 6-4 in the district, cleared 6-5 1/2 at Moccasin this spring and a repeat in Champaign would earn him the record.

Chicago and suburban schools set the district pace in running events, but Southern Illinois dominated field activities. Rudy Siegel, Pana, has the state's best discus throw of 147 feet, 2 inches. Bob Moore, Carbondale pole vaulter, managed 12 feet 1 inch in district competition, 1 inch above the performance of Proviso's Norman Altenhoff. Jerry Kruger, Mt. Vernon, broad jumped 22 feet 3 inches almost a foot better than other district performers.

For the third straight year Wendell Phillips brings the state's 100-yard dash leader to Memorial Stadium. Ned Lenoir won the city final in 10 seconds flat, four tenths of a second off the Illinois state record held by Jim Golliday, former Phillips star.

Behind Lenoir are five dash men who posted 1:01 in the districts. John Gray, Joliet, Kay Drake, Dixon, Lee McMillion, Wheaton, Vernon Shreve, Nashville, and Arthur Harris, Tilden.

Harris was nipped by Lenoir in the Chicago district, but beat the Phillips ace in the 220 for the state's best time of :22.3. Lenoir was credited with a :22.4.

Ben Johnson, LaGrange's fine quarter-mile runner, a 3:10 in the suburban district to establish himself as the man to beat in that event. Dick Flodin, Oak Park, (5:13), Al Ward, New Trier (5:14), and Dave Paden, New Trier, and Tom Hughes, Crane (5:15) follow.

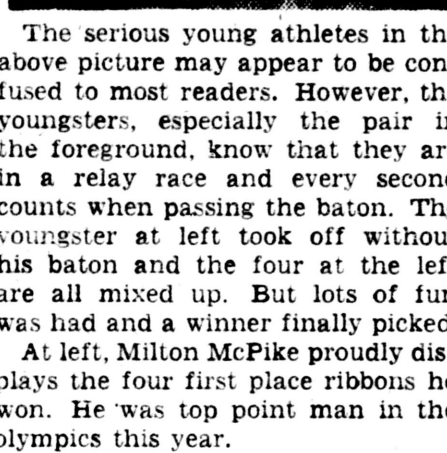

Phillips has another leader in half-mile runner McNutt who ran 2:00.2 on a soft track in the districts. McNutt may be pushed to a new record Saturday by George Drake, LaGrange (2:00.7) and Glen Schrieker, York (2:00.9).

One Mile Is A Battle
The mile seems to be shaping into a battle between three more suburban stars. Clarence Jones, Bloom, has spun this distance in 4:31.4. Larry Barrett, Waukegan, has a 4:31.6 to his credit and John Kilcullen of Maine (Des Plaines) a 4:31.9. Next best time drops to 4:37.1 by Urbana's Vernon Scheuing.

Only one hurdler appears capable of capturing a double victory. Phillips' Richard Parkman tied with Ted Loomis, Austin, in the district lows. Their time was a sparkling :20. Parkman has the third best time in the highs with :15.2. Ron Leoni, Bloom (14.9) and Abe Woodson, Austin (15.1) are the two above him.

The Evansville 880-yard relay team topped district times with 1:31.2, followed by Phillips (1:33.6) and Joliet (1:33.7). The new one-mile relay event has New Trier the favorite in 3:31.0. LaGrange offers the only close opposition with a 3:33.0.

Robin Roberts Wins 6th Game, Phils Trim Reds

Philadelphia, May 15.—(P)—Robin Roberts spaced five Cincinnati hits tonight to register his sixth win against one loss as the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Reds 5-1. Roberts' only real mistake was a home run ball offered to Joe Adcock in the sixth. Jackie Mayo clouted a round tripper for the winners in the second.

The victory was especially sweet for Roberts because he chalked up the win over the Reds' ace, Ewell Blackwell.

For the Phillies it was the third win in a row, accomplished before a roaring crowd of 14,752.

During the first five innings only two Redlegs reached second base, and errors were responsible for those advances. After Adcock's drive Roberts mowed down the Reds with complete ease.

Illinois Carries Five-Game Streak Against Buckeyes
Chicago, May 15.—(P)—Pace-setting Illinois carries a five-game winning streak against defending champion Ohio State in a three-tilt set featuring a 15-game Big Ten baseball program this weekend.

Ohio's Buckeyes, anchored in sixth spot with a 4-4 record, meet an Illini team which has won seven of nine starts, leads the league in hitting with .296 and has an unbeaten pitcher in Jerry Smith (3-0).

The two tangle at Columbus, O., in a single game Friday and a twin bill Saturday. The Bucks' Paul Ebert also is an undefeated three-game winner.

Wisconsin and Michigan, deadlocked for second place at 6-3 one game behind the Illini, each face two different foes this weekend.

Michigan, second in hitting with .283 and the loop's top fielding team with .972, is host to last-place Indiana Friday, and to Purdue, tied for seventh with Northwestern in a Saturday pair.

Wisconsin hits the road for one game Friday at Minnesota, still very much in the running with a 5-3 mark, and two Saturday at Iowa (2-6).

Minnesota, whose Paul Giel is unbeaten on the mound, entertains Northwestern in a Saturday brace. Northwestern Friday is at Iowa for a single game. Michigan State (5-4) is host to Purdue Friday and to Indiana for a pair Saturday.

10 a.m.—Intercollegiate Track, Illinois vs. Wisconsin, Memorial Stadium.
12:00 p.m.—Intercollegiate Track (finals), Memorial Stadium.

CRIMSON NINE MEETS TAYLORVILLE IN DISTRICT PLAYOFF TONIGHT

Bob Kraushaar and his Jacksonville high school baseball team will duel Taylorville at Lanphier park in Springfield tonight. The game, which gets underway at 7 p.m. standard time, will decide who's to compete against three other central Illinois nines in the sectional tournament at Taylorville next week.

Coach Kraushaar said last night that Bill Williams will be his mound choice to go against Taylorville. The Tornadoes whipped favored Cathedral 1-0 in the finals of the Springfield District.

Jacksonville high edged Franklin 5-4 in the local sub district finals. The Crimsons worked out under the lights at Nichols park last night. The Jacksonville tournament team: front row, left to right, Ron Campbell, Jan Sommer, Bill Dickerson, Earl Lair, Jim Woodward, Max Rogge, Ed McEvers.

Errors Give Augustana 5-2 Win Over Blueboys

Augustana scored five runs in the seventh and eighth innings to come from behind and clip the Illinois college Blueboys 5-2 here yesterday afternoon.

It was a Little Nine conference ball game. Blueboy pitcher Fred Lubes allowed only five hits in the game but he was harmed by six Illinois fielding errors. The Hilltoppers were especially weak in the outfield where several pop flies off Augustana bats dropped for doubles.

Illinois college scored single runs in the second and third innings. With Lubes pitching good ball, it looked as if Coach Brooks' lads had another league win to their credit.

However, the local collegians' offense folded in the seventh and the Vikings scored three runs. Two more crossed the platter in the seventh to clinch the win for the visitors.

The locals travel to Illinois Wesleyan next Wednesday for another conference contest.

Golf's Newest Star

A mental hazard is fear, nothing more or less. Anything a golfer believes is a mental hazard is one.

A player is conscious of a mental hazard before he makes the shot. This causes him to think of the hazard instead of the target, and thoughts have wings.

The out-of-bounds rule registered this year constitutes a mental hazard to many average players. The new rule penalizes the player stroke and distance, making it three off the tee instead of two. Even though many drivers disregard the rule, they know the regulation is there, and it causes them to worry.

Many club players are complaining about the restoration of this rule. They should be asked this question, "Would you let me drop out of an unplayable lie or water hazard for nothing?"

The answer would be "No." Then they no doubt would agree that a player should be penalized for making what in theory is the worst error possible on a golf course—driving out of bounds.

A water hazard in front of the tee can constitute a mental hazard to a duffer. He will concentrate on the lake and hit the ball into it. The accomplished shotmaker will never be in the water. He knows he can reach the fairway, so completely eliminates the lake from his thoughts. Players erect mental hazards around certain holes and clubs.

How many times have you heard a golfer say, "I hate that No. 4 hole. I just can't get to the green," or something to that effect? That player is building a first-class mental hazard for himself.

Say a player has taken an eight on a certain hole. That is likely to leave a bit of apprehensiveness, and he's liable not to play the hole well in the future.

The golfer who says, "I'm not playing my No. 5 iron well," is feeding a Grade A mental hazard.

Even the greatest suffer from mental hazards, but they do something about them.

Gene Sarazen recalls the PGA Championship of 1933 at Waukegan, Wis. The winner of them all wasn't playing well, so he eliminated from his bag all the clubs he wasn't using satisfactorily, leaving only five or six irons.

Gene won the championship with his skeletonized equipment.

That's one way to beat mental

Trucks Relied On Fast Ball In No-Hitter

By Glenn Engle

Detroit, May 15.—(P)—A blazing fast ball, always Virgil Trucks' strong suit, was his ace in the hole today.

"I used sliders and curve balls most of the time," said Trucks after hurling a masterful no-hitter against Washington today. "But when I did throw the fast ball it was just as fast as ever."

Trucks, who earned the nickname "Fire" as much from his speed as from his surname, said two of his key pitches were blistering fast ones.

One of those struck out Jim Busby in the third inning and the other fanned the dangerous Mickey Vernon with two out in the ninth inning.

But Trucks attributed his success largely to almost flawless control. "The small crowd of 2,215 fans perhaps were recalling another Tiger pitcher's fate when Vernon came up in the ninth. It was less than a month ago that Art Houtteman was only one out away from a no-hitter when Harry Simpson of the Cleveland Indians ruined him with a single to left."

In the dressing room the handshakes were equally divided between Trucks and Virgil Wertz, who finished off the no-hitter in the most dramatic fashion possible with his two-out-in-the-ninth homer.

"I've just got to get married more often," Wertz joked as teammates joked about his marriage only three days ago. Wertz won yesterday's game, too, with a four-bagger—the first day back in the lineup after a heel injury illness.

Wertz said Washington pitcher Bob Porterfield gave him "a real home run ball"—a fast inside pitch just above the knees.

"Boy," he said, "did that make me feel good after I'd ruined another scoring chance by getting picked off second in the seventh inning."

Virgil Trucks Throws No-Hitter As Tigers Blank Senators 1-0

Detroit, May 15.—(P)—Fireballing Virgil Trucks of the Detroit Tigers hurled the season's first no-hit no-run game in the major leagues today and did it mostly with control.

Just when it looked like Trucks might have to go into extra innings against Washington, hulking Virgil Wertz blasted a dramatic two-out home run in the last of the ninth inning to beat the Senators, 1-0.

As Wertz rounded the bases Tiger teammates started backslapping Trucks who hadn't won a game this season and gave up 13 hits in his last trip.

Losers Bob Porterfield, who had pitched no-hit ball himself for nearly six innings, sobbed as he told the story of the game's losing pitch. "It was a fast ball, knee high on the inside."

Trucks, beaming in the clubhouse at his first no-hit game in 11 seasons in the majors, said, "Control, that was the story. I used my fast ball sparingly."

Trucks, a 33-year-old right-hander, didn't give up a hint of a hit. He struck out Mickey Vernon, the last batter to face him.

The Senators drove 12 flies to the outfield, eight grounders and seven of them struck out.

Wertz came to bat after Pat Mullin drove a fly ball just five feet short of the right field stands. After letting the first ball go by, Wertz drove losing pitcher Bob Porterfield's second pitch into the upper right field stands just inside the foul line 340 feet away. Right fielder Jackie Jensen didn't even bother to run back. He just trotted off the field.

Porterfield had a no-hitter going for five and two-thirds innings before George Kell splashed a single into right field. In all, the Tigers got only four hits.

It was a dramatic comeback for Trucks, who had looked miserable this year after winning his last six games of 1951. The 192-pound native of Birmingham, Ala., had lost previous starts to Cleveland, 7-5 and Philadelphia, 10-6, and had failed to finish any of his four previous starts.

The last time out, Trucks gave up 13 hits in eight and a third innings against Chicago but he wasn't charged with the defeat.

Only one other no-hitter had ever been pitched by a Detroit hurler: George Mullin did it in 1912, beating St. Louis 7-0.

The smallest crowd of the season, 2,215, saw today's no-hitter. It was the second straight victory for the last-place Tigers and equalled their longest winning streak of the season.

Wertz doubled to start the seventh but was picked off second by catcher Clyde Klutts to shortstop Pete Runnels. Trucks himself singled over second base in the eighth.

Special slips for scroll on which Dizzy Dean fans in this area are placing their signatures in tribute to the popular baseball personality have been placed on display at Local Taverns.

Starr Brothers, Inc., Palstaff distributor in this area, reported that 185 names were collected for the scroll during the first day it was in their hands. In reality, the exhibit here is part of a master scroll being assembled for presentation to Ol' Diz as part of Dizzy Dean Day ceremonies at Sportsman's Park in St. Louis on May 25. Dean will be honored on that occasion in conjunction with the St. Louis Browns' double-header with Cleveland.

Starr Brothers, Inc., said that any person wishing to add his name to the scroll may do so by signing a slip provided in Local Taverns. The signature will appear on the final master roll, expected to be so large when assembled that it will stretch across the baseball park.

Athletics Blank Nosediving Browns In 6-0 Encounter
St. Louis, May 15.—(P)—Alex Kellner pitched four-hitter, shutting out the Browns for the second time in eight days, as the Philadelphia Athletics scored a 6-0 victory over the St. Louis Browns tonight. Kellner hit safely three times, drove in two runs and scored two in making it a personal triumph, his third of the season.

Kellner pitched perfect ball until Bob Nieman opened the fifth with a single. Jimmy Dyck followed with a double, but Kellner regained control and no St. Louisan crossed the plate.

Altogether Kellner faced just five men above the maximum for nine innings.

Tommy Byrne's wildness was a factor in his defeat. In addition to 10 hits, he walked four, hit one with a pitched ball, and lost two wild pitches with runners aboard.

The only extra-base blow off Byrne was Kellner's eighth-frame double, scoring George Kell and Joe Astroth. Kellner came home on Eddie Joost's long fly.

Dodger Bonus Baby Blanks Pirates 2-0
Brooklyn, May 15.—(P)—Billy Loes, 22-year-old Brooklyn bonus pitcher, made his first start tonight and shut out the groggy Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-0, allowing only six hits.

The Dodgers got to loser Murry Dickson for their runs in the first inning on singles by PeeWee Reese, Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella and a walk and an outfield fly.

Loes, signed for $22,000 after a sensational high school career in neighboring Queens walked only two and fanned seven in his brilliant starting debut.

Winner of three decisions on re-lets, Loes became the top Dodger winner with a perfect 4-0 record after subduing the Pirates.

Old Out-Of-Bounds Rule Creates Mental Hazard For Club Player

By Jackie Burke
Golf's Newest Star

A mental hazard is fear, nothing more or less. Anything a golfer believes is a mental hazard is one.

A player is conscious of a mental hazard before he makes the shot. This causes him to think of the hazard instead of the target, and thoughts have wings.

The out-of-bounds rule registered this year constitutes a mental hazard to many average players. The new rule penalizes the player stroke and distance, making it three off the tee instead of two. Even though many drivers disregard the rule, they know the regulation is there, and it causes them to worry.

Many club players are complaining about the restoration of this rule. They should be asked this question, "Would you let me drop out of an unplayable lie or water hazard for nothing?"

The answer would be "No." Then they no doubt would agree that a player should be penalized for making what in theory is the worst error possible on a golf course—driving out of bounds.

A water hazard in front of the tee can constitute a mental hazard to a duffer. He will concentrate on the lake and hit the ball into it. The accomplished shotmaker will never be in the water. He knows he can reach the fairway, so completely eliminates the lake from his thoughts. Players erect mental hazards around certain holes and clubs.

How many times have you heard a golfer say, "I hate that No. 4 hole. I just can't get to the green," or something to that effect? That player is building a first-class mental hazard for himself.

Say a player has taken an eight on a certain hole. That is likely to leave a bit of apprehensiveness, and he's liable not to play the hole well in the future.

The golfer who says, "I'm not playing my No. 5 iron well," is feeding a Grade A mental hazard.

Even the greatest suffer from mental hazards, but they do something about them.

Gene Sarazen recalls the PGA Championship of 1933 at Waukegan, Wis. The winner of them all wasn't playing well, so he eliminated from his bag all the clubs he wasn't using satisfactorily, leaving only five or six irons.

Gene won the championship with his skeletonized equipment.

That's one way to beat mental

Red Sox Blank White Sox 1-0, End Losing Streak

Chicago, May 15.—(P)—Boston collected only three hits, but one was a pay-off single by Ted Lepore for a 1-0 win over the Chicago White Sox in a thrilling pitchers duel which ended a six-game Red Sox losing streak today.

Ray Scarborough registered his first victory against two defeats by limiting the White Sox to four hits.

The hard-luck loser was Ken Holcombe, making his fourth start in quest of his first victory against two losses.

Burma Missions Described At Meet Of Baptist Society

A southeast Asian land on the Bay of Bengal was described to the Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church during a meeting Thursday afternoon. About 33 members gathered at the home of Mrs. R. L. Dumas, 279 Sandusky street, to hear Mrs. Ruth Walton Clifford tell of "Baptist Missionary Work in Burma."

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Charles Story, program chairman.

Mrs. Clifford told the audience that she lived in Burma while her husband was in service there. She was a missionary at Judson College, helped at a mission hospital and did work in a leper colony.

She displayed clothing and handwork of the people in that country. Mrs. T. U. Smiri led devotions as the meeting began, reading the 23rd Psalm. Mrs. Clair E. Malcomson led in prayer. Presiding was Mrs. L. P. Hauck, president.

Committee reports were heard from Mrs. Henry Frisch, courtesy chairman; Mrs. A. J. Stewart, Christian citizenship; Mrs. T. C. Hill, White Cross; Mrs. James Young, literature; Mrs. R. L. Dumas, reading; Mrs. C. R. Dowland, missionary education; and Mrs. Clair E. Malcomson, guild girls.

Reports of the recent meetings held by the groups of the society were made by Mrs. M. R. Range, Mrs. M. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Charles Story and Mrs. Leon Stewart. Miss Mabel Withee gave the love gift prayer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant, Miss Viola Robison.

Virginia Churches Plan Vacation Bible School

The interdenominational vacation church school for Virginia will start June 9th running through the 20th of June. Churches cooperating in this school are the Methodist, Christian, Lutheran, and Presbyterian. The school will run each morning from 9 o'clock through 11:30.

The school is for children ranging from three years old through seniors in high school.

The school is open for every child. The children are requested, with the aid of parents and Sunday school teachers, to register at their Sunday school on May 27 or June 1.

The director of the school is the Rev. T. Chandler Burton.

To Hear MacMurray Singers

On Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Madrigal singers of MacMurray college, Jacksonville, will give a concert at the Presbyterian church in this city. The group, consisting of about 30 singers, will be directed by Mrs. Helen Houdon Hamilton of the MacMurray music faculty, and will sing four groups of numbers.

Speaker Asserts Local Government Key To Democracy

Declaring that "it is not enough to deprecate the tendency towards centralization of government in Washington," Robert E. Merriam, Chicago alderman, told Kiwanis at noon Thursday, "we must also cleanse our local administrations and we must redesign their structures to permit effective local government. Effective local government is the life-blood of Democracy."

It was the third Jacksonville speech in two days for the Chicago official. Earlier Thursday he spoke to the students of Illinois College and the previous evening he addressed the Lions club. On each occasion he spoke on the problem of "Crime and City Government."

Merriam also was interviewed over radio station WLDS Thursday morning.

Merriam outlined the problem of developing strong local government in Illinois and stressed that "many of Chicago's problems stem from the simple fact that it is a large city and it faces the difficulties inherent in governing vast agglomerations of people."

Second, the alderman emphasized that "all cities in Illinois must be accorded a greater amount of home rule. As it is, the state's constitution hamstringing local government in many ways."

Finally, he called upon "the decent citizens of every community to participate in the operations of local government. A significant reason for the entrance of the criminal element into political life is simply the result of a vacuum. The vacuum is produced by the refusal of decent citizens to participate in government."

Merriam said most of the other major cities in the United States have recently gone through a period of extensive reform, "except Chicago."

A. Wadsworth Applebee, president of Kiwanis, issued a statement after the meeting that the local club will send a group of delegates to the Kiwanis International convention in Seattle, Wash., June 15-19.

Asbury Girls 4-H Club Has Program At Suttles Home

The Asbury Girls 4-H club met at the home of Beverly and Barbara Suttles in Woodson Tuesday evening, May 13. Elizabeth Muntman, president, had charge of the meeting.

The 4-H pledge was led by Mary Elizabeth Fitzsimmons and the roll call was answered by "Why I Like to Live in America."

It was announced that the 4-H camp would be held from July 21 to 26.

Shirley Horner, program chairman, presented the following: How to Arrange Flowers—Neta Rose Brown; How to be a Good Cook—Carol Hembrough; Why we use Dark Grain and Enriched Flour—Mary Elizabeth Fitzsimmons; Good Eggs—Kathleen Daines; Ways of Using Cookies—Doris Butler; Safety in the Home—Carol Hembrough; Piano duet—Beverly Suttles and Alice McIlrath; Meal Time—Judith Prather.

Guests were Mrs. Marjorie Prather, Mrs. Harold Black, Mrs. Donald McNeely, Mrs. Laurence Hembrough, Alice McIlrath, Mrs. Emmett Suttles and the leader, Mrs. Chauncey Carter.

Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Judy Prather, Wednesday evening, June 11.

White Hall Woman State Director Of Heart Association

White Hall—Mrs. A. R. McConathy, who attended the annual Illinois Heart association meeting in Springfield at the Leland hotel recently, was elected a director for the ensuing two years.

There are 30 directors in the state. Mrs. McConathy has served one year for the Illinois Home Bureau Federation as health chairman and will continue to represent this group for the two years of her term.

To Represent Church

Rev. and Mrs. Ben A. Bohn will be in Chicago on Monday and will represent the First Baptist church here as delegates to the National American Baptist convention to be held at the International Amphitheatre.

The church here has announced its annual Daily Vacation Bible school will be held the first two weeks in June beginning June 2, with afternoon sessions only.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon VanDer Hayden of St. Louis visited friends here Monday.

NAZARENE REVIVAL TO END SUNDAY NIGHT

The revival at the local Church of the Nazarene will continue through Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. H. N. Dickinson of Indianapolis, Ind., guest preacher, has had over 50,000 converts in his ministry. More than 107 of his converts are in some field of Christian service.

Sunday at 9:45 a.m. in a combined service, Rev. Dickinson will give his life story entitled "From the Racetracks to the Pulpit."

The pastor and people of the church extend an invitation to the public to attend the nightly services and the special service Sunday morning.

Writer Right And Wrong About Moving Brick House

A positive statement often brings a correction.

In a feature story appearing in Sunday's Journal and Monday's Courier concerning the moving of a brick house on West Morton avenue, the writer stated "Friday morning a brick house was moved in Jacksonville, the first in the history of the city."

The declaration was mostly wrong. It now seems safe to say that the Rev. Samuel S. Waddell residence was the first brick house ever moved in Jacksonville. But it wasn't the first brick structure.

In the fall of 1908 the two story building which now serves as the G.M. & O. freight house was moved east "about 35 feet." A specialist from Chicago did the job.

Reader Was Right

The first man to spot the error and report it was Dr. G. R. Bradley, 265 Webster avenue. A check

Violin And Piano Artists To Give M'Murray Concert

On Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the Annie Merner chapel of MacMurray College, the last concert of the current year's series will be given by Harry Farberman, violinist, and Edith Schiller, pianist. This concert is to take the place of the organ recital that was scheduled earlier in the season.

Farberman, besides being concertmaster of the St. Louis Symphony, is associate conductor of the orchestra. He is also conductor and musical director of the LaCade television show, every Sunday evening on KGO.

Farberman was a pupil of Leopold Auer and at the age of 18 made his first tour.

Miss Schiller is an artist whose ability to please her audiences has been consistent. After graduating from the Institute of Musical Art in New York, she won three fellowships at the Juilliard graduate school with Olga Samoroff-Stokowski. She has played in New York's Town Hall, on tour, and as soloist with leading symphony orchestras.

The program Saturday evening will include many favorites for both piano and violin. For the violin there will be the "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "Songs My Mother Taught Me" by Dvorak-Kreisler as well as "Tambourin Chinois" by Kreisler.

The pianist will play "Rondo Capriccioso" by Mendelssohn as well as the "Black Key Etude" and the "Fantasie Impromptu" by Chopin.

Salvation Army Contributions Made At Patterson

Patterson — Mrs. Helen Bain, chairman of the Salvation Army drive, assisted by Mrs. Olive Cotter, has reported that a total of $42.93 has been collected in this community.

The money has been turned over to the treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Koonitz. There was a total of $15.50 from last year.

A sum of $15 has been paid out for assistance.

Commencement Thursday

The eighth annual eighth grade commencement of the Patterson grade school will be held at the grade school building Thursday, May 22, at 8 p.m.

Members of the class are Esther Hiatt, Joan Newton, Gary Bigham, Raymond Coker and Robert Pence. Expected Home Soon

Mrs. Mrs. Odom received a telephone call from her son, Cpl. Eldon Odom, Wednesday evening from New Brunswick, N. J., telling her that he had arrived at Camp Kilmer, N. J., at 8:30 that morning. He will be sent from there to Camp Breckinridge, Ky., and is expected home soon.

He has been in Germany the past year.

Mrs. Paul Dawdy and Mrs. Basil Dawdy were Jacksonville shoppers Tuesday.

The grade school is using a movie projector purchased by the pupils of the intermediate and upper grades, who donated money from their magazine drive. They also purchased several reels.

Gary Neal Dawdy, seventh grade pupil, entered the Bill Veck contest recently, and his essay on "Why I Want to be a Bat Boy" won for him two tickets to the ball game in St. Louis Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan of White Hall were Saturday afternoon callers on Mr. and Mrs. Basil Dawdy and son.

Funeral Services

Irvin Lloyd Barrow

White Hall—Services for Irvin Lloyd Barrow will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Athensville Baptist church. Rev. Albert Monroe will officiate. Burial will be made in Pine Tree cemetery.

The body was removed from the Dawdy Funeral Home to the residence of a son, Lee, at White Hall Thursday morning.

Thomas Gilleland

Carrollton—Funeral services for Thomas Gilleland will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Mt. Gilead church with Rev. William Boston of Jacksonville in charge. Interment will be made in the Berlin cemetery. The remains are at the Mehl funeral home in Carrollton.

confirmed he was right, but the persons who remembered the occasion couldn't agree when it happened. Some said as far back as 1902; others all the way up to 1912. Most of them agreed that it was in the fall of the year that the building which had housed the Tunison Map company was moved to its present location.

D. C. Diltz, veteran local agent for the Alton and now the G.M. & O. railroad, began searching through his records and found a receipt for final payment for the building of the warehouse. It was dated March, 1909, and he's sure the brick section of the warehouse was moved the fall before.

His search revealed that the general contractor was Joshua Vasconcellos & Sons—Lloyd and Clyde M. Lloyd now lives in Los Angeles, Calif.

1908 Right Date

Clyde M. Vasconcellos, 417 N. Laurel Drive, confirmed the date. He got out of school in the spring of 1908 and recalled working on the warehouse from start to finish.

The Vasconcellos firm hired a crew from Chicago to help them get the brick building onto property recently purchased by the railroad, from East College avenue to East College street, now Beecher avenue.

Same Technique

The procedure was almost identical to that used here last week by the Petersburg construction company. The sides of the building were bolted together with massive steel bars; then it was raised. Three steel I beams were placed under it, and these beams were supported on trucks that ran on steel tracks.

Then it was winched east 35 feet. Agent Diltz recalls that the Tunison Map company moved to Chicago shortly before that time. It grew to be a large concern and later consolidated with Rand, McNally.

The writer had questioned many older men who had been allied with construction in Jacksonville. They were sure no brick structure had been moved here. Later, when asked about the Alton freight office, most of them smiled and said, "I forgot about that one."

Meat Should Not Be Frozen Twice, Member Tells Unit

The May meeting of the Ebenezer Home Bureau brought 23 members and six guests to the home of Mrs. Paul Jones on Sandusky road. Mrs. Orla Mason acted the hostess.

With the unit chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Moss, presiding, reports of the division chairmen were given. Mrs. Paul Mapes, leader of safety work, read an article on the danger of freezing meat that has been thawed out.

The major lesson presented by Mrs. Paul Mapes concerned "Caring for Children at Adult Meetings." Mrs. Robert Houston demonstrated the use of "Garnishes for Desserts" as the minor lesson.

Recreation was conducted by Mrs. Roy Gilbert. The prize-winner was Mrs. Howard Fairfield. Refreshments illustrating the minor lesson were served from a table at which Mrs. Moss presided.

The June meeting will be held with Mrs. Robert Houston.

Roodhouse Church Elects Officers, Adopts Budget

Roodhouse—The annual election of officers was held at the Baptist church here Wednesday evening and a new church budget of $8,515 was adopted.

Mrs. David Wilkinson was elected church clerk, J. B. Tipps financial secretary, J. R. McConathy treasurer, Jimmy Joe Houseman chief usher, Larry Gilmore assistant chief usher. Mrs. Merle Mackey was named chairman of the organists, Mrs. Roy Reynolds, Mrs. Marie Hopkins and Mrs. H. L. Janvren.

Deacons whose term will expire in 1955 are Wiley Garrison, Tom Meckley and Gene Clark. William Roy was chosen as a trustee for a term to expire in 1953. Chris Walker, Howard Mayberry and Homer Thompson were elected to serve as trustees for a term expiring in 1955.

To the finance committee, term to end in 1955, were named David Wilkinson, Homer Rimbey and Roy Blackburn. Deacons elected were Pearl Johnson, Wendie Taylor and Marie Martin. Their terms will expire in 1955. Mrs. Mackey and Roy Reynolds were named to a building committee, term to end in 1955.

Roy Reynolds was elected church school superintendent and J. B. Tipps was chosen as his assistant. Claude Martin was elected secretary; Mabel Hopkins, assistant secretary and librarian.

Gene Clark was chairman of the nominating committee. Serving with him were Mrs. David Wilkinson, Mrs. Dorothy Ferguson, Galen Tipps and LeRoy Blackburn.

Address: Rotary

Lt. Charles W. Brooks, recently returned from active service in Korea, spoke before the local Rotary club Wednesday evening. He also showed pictures he had taken, using a projector.

Visiting Rotarians from Jacksonville were Paul Wagner, Rev. Harris Pankhurst and Maurice Mansfield. The dinner was served by the W.S. C.S. of the Methodist church.

Time To Apply For Rural Youth U.I. Scholarship

Applications for the $300 scholarship for some Morgan county boy or girl entering the University of Illinois College of Agriculture and enrolling in either home economics or agriculture as a freshman this fall have been very slow in coming in, reports Patricia Lou Ringer, Morgan-Scott assistant home adviser.

The scholarship was won by the local Rural Youth group for their outstanding community service activities during the past year. If application blanks from Morgan county residents are not received by June 1, then the scholarship will be awarded to some other county in the state; hence Morgan county Rural Youth members are very anxious to have a number of Morgan county boys and girls apply for it.

Application blanks and information on the 1,000 word essay on "The Railroad Industry" which is to accompany the application blank when the scholarship winner is picked by the University of Illinois Scholarship Committee are available at the Morgan-Scott Home Bureau in the Farm Bureau Building in Jacksonville.

The deadline for the return of application blanks and the essays to be submitted to the Home Bureau Office is June 1.

BPWC Hears Talk On Economics By Dr. Raymaker

Dr. Constance Raymaker, professor of economics at MacMurray College, was the speaker at the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club Thursday evening.

Miss Thelma Bacon, co-chairman of the program coordinating committee, introduced Dr. Raymaker, a member of the club.

Economics is a basic or preliminary course to all other courses, she said, and that is its value from the student's point of view. Courses in the subject have changed a great deal in order to keep up with the world's problems.

The study of economics gives enlightenment on business and on living, the speaker stated. It concerns the process of making a living in a community, a city, a nation. It centers on working with human beings using analysis. It includes information on prices, markets, demands, wages, rents, interests, taxes.

The subject deals, she said, with many problems of today, such as monopolies and employment recruitment.

Before Dr. Raymaker's address Miss Elsie Evans presented Miss Virginia Hollowell, a senior at Jacksonville high school, who sang "The Song Is You" by Jerome Kern. She was accompanied by Miss Mildred Eubank.

Miss Margaret Faye Hopper, president, and Miss Edith Peck were elected delegates to the biennial B.P.W.C. convention at Boston.

The next meeting of the local club will be a social affair June 19.

Trinity To Send Synod Delegates To Springfield

Trinity Episcopal church of this city will participate in the 75th annual synod of the Episcopal Diocese of Springfield by sending three delegates, Charles Fawcett, Walter Bellatti and Lanning Lambert. The synod will be held Tuesday and Wednesday at St. Paul's cathedral, Springfield.

The Woman's Auxiliary will meet at the same time. Local officers who expect to attend are Miss Ann Bellatti, Mrs. Walter Bellatti, Mrs. Nelle Wandell, Mrs. Reginald Reid and Mrs. R. M. Harris.

A reception at the home of the bishop, Rev. Charles A. Clough, will open the synod. A banquet will be held Tuesday evening, a communion service Wednesday morning. Delegates to the general convention and diocesan officers will be named.

A special luncheon Wednesday will honor the 85th birthday of Rev. John Chanler White, who was bishop of Springfield for 23 years before retiring.

Play Instruments For Lafayette PTA

O. A. Schuette, director of instrumental music, presented his pupils in a program heard Tuesday by the Lafayette P.T.A. at the school auditorium.

The selections featured the cornet, flute, clarinet, saxophone and trombone.

A benefit auction to be held early in the fall was discussed at the business meeting conducted by Mrs. J. D. Klump, president.

All parents were asked to save any dishes furniture, electrical appliances and other articles which can be donated for the auction.

Oklahoma Man Stricken In Stalled Truck, Dies

An Oklahoma man slumped over at the wheel of his pickup truck, stalled in a ditch on Route 36 west of the city about 8:55 p.m. Thursday. He was pronounced dead a short time later at Our Saviour's hospital.

He was George William Noone, 69, a retired resident of Drumright, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. Noone were on their way home after a visit with relatives at Joliet. They drove about a mile west of the Tommy store, then started to turn back in search for a tourist court.

Noone, attempting to turn the truck, backed into the ditch on the south side of the road. Neither he nor his wife were apparently injured, and the truck did not receive much damage. A few minutes later he was stricken.

Officials said he probably suffered a heart attack induced by the excitement of backing into the ditch. Mrs. Noone said her husband was subject to coronary attacks and two years ago was a patient at a government hospital.

The sheriff's office was called and Deputies John Reev and C. Schackmann went to the scene. They took Mrs. Noone into town. Her husband was brought to the hospital by the Cooney ambulance.

Lukeman's wrecker pulled the half-ton Chevrolet pickup truck back onto the road.

The body was taken to the Reavy Funeral Home, where Coroner R. B. Ridgway will conduct an inquest Friday afternoon.

Noone was a former resident of Algona, Iowa. He had lived at Drumright two years.

He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War.

Besides his widow he leaves five children by a former marriage.

Golden Rule Class Meets In Evening At Chandlerville

Chandlerville—Mrs. Frederic Bergman and Mrs. Jack Carlock were hostesses to members of the Golden Rule Sunday school class of the Methodist church at the Bergman home on a recent evening.

Mrs. John Hannum led the devotional service that opened the meeting. The president, Mrs. Maynard Harper, presided. There were 15 present.

Contests brought prizes to Mrs. John Hannum, Mrs. Maynard Harper, Mrs. Lester Stewart, Mrs. Arthur Glick and Miss Lucille Garner.

Gingerbread topped with whipped cream, nuts and coffee were served. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lester Stewart with Mrs. James Gurnsey assisting.

To Daughter's Wedding

Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Pickering left Monday for Newark, N.J., to attend the wedding of their daughter, Clara Mae. Rev. Pickering is pastor of the Sangamon Valley Presbyterian church.

The marriage ceremony will be performed Saturday. Miss Pickering will become Mrs. William E. Hard. The couple will fly to Bermuda on a wedding trip.

The bride's father will return home Thursday, May 22. Mrs. Pickering will spend a few days visiting relatives at Philadelphia, Penn.

Mrs. Roscoe Milstead was a Virginia business caller Wednesday.

Rev. Gordon Artt, Mrs. Eugene Vaughn and Mrs. Fred Wahlfeld were at Springfield Wednesday attending the Lutheran state convention, held at Concordia Seminary.

George Vollmers was a Jacksonville caller Thursday.

Opera By Mozart To Be Presented At Music Hall

Monday night is the time set for the presentation of an opera, "Bastien and Bastienne" by Mozart, in Music Hall on the MacMurray College campus. The production will begin at 7 o'clock.

The opera is being staged by MacMurray with the cooperation of Illinois College.

The roles will be sung by Joseph Cleeland, tenor; Miss Mary Helen Potter, soprano, a student at MacMurray; and William N. Malotte, an Illinois College student.

Miss Wanda Yi of MacMurray will preside over the keyboard and provide the piano accompaniment.

The action of the opera will be performed by puppets, created by the MacMurray art department under the direction of Mrs. Guy. The puppets will be manipulated by Miss Jo Hunnold, Miss Sally Denton and Miss Ann Sherman, all MacMurray students.

The scenery will be the handiwork of Charles Cleeland.

Junior Club At Concord To Send Books To Iran

The May meeting of the Concord Junior Woman's club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Harold Strickler and attended by 18 members. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Robert Nickel, conducting the meeting.

Announcement was made of the spring federation meeting to be held at 10:30 a.m. June 3 and a potluck luncheon to be served at noon. Mrs.

John Clark, on behalf of the club, presented Mrs. Warren Brockhouse with a gift in appreciation for her work as senior adviser for the past year.

Members voted to send scrapbooks to children in hospitals in Iran. A committee composed of Mrs. Charles Witte, Mrs. John Gaines and Mrs. Harold Strickler was named to investigate the refreshment needs of the young people on recreation nights at Concord.

During the meeting papers were passed out to find hostesses for the meetings for next year. A report of the bake sale was made.

Mrs. Paul Hess introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. M. A. Summers, who showed movies of his recent trip to Europe. During the recreational period members folded bandages for the Passavant hospital. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. David Newby.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH

Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. PASTEETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, sticky, pasty taste or feeling. It's shame (non-oxid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTEETH today at any drug store.

Fire Insurance Rates Reduced At Meredosia

Meredosia—Mayor James E. Major announced that it has finally become official through the Illinois Fire Insurance Bureau that fire insurance rates are reduced from 30 cents to 18 cents in Meredosia. This reduction came about as a result of the recently installed village water system, newly purchased fire truck and equipment, and reorganized volunteer fire department.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Skinner of East Hollywood, California were week-end visitors in Meredosia at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Skinner.

Albert Skinner is a brother of the famous Frank Skinner who has long been recognized as one of the three top music arrangers in the world. A movie with music arranged by him and entitled, "Week-end With Father" will appear at the Meredosia theater next Saturday night. Frank Skinner, himself, is expected to visit in Meredosia the first part of June.

Frank, Albert and another brother, Russell have a music corporation in Hollywood.

Will Attend Convention
Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Griebler of Meredosia will attend the state dental convention in Springfield the first half of next week. Most of the other dentists in this area will be there.

In the column of Meredosia news this week, the water stage was given incorrectly. The correct water stage at this time, is about 15 feet. A stage of 11 feet and six inches will open travel on the road to Sunset Beach. This stage is expected by Memorial Day, for the information of those who wish to spend that vacation out of doors.

Glorious News From Gloria

Gloria De Haven says that she believes the man should be "the master over the woman." She says the attitude of European men, which she has observed at Cannes, France, is the right attitude. "People back home are going to hate me for saying so," she says. (But it won't be the men).

Jacksonville Man Receives Honors At University

Urbana-Champaign, Ill. — Venus Pierce Buster, 231 Howe St., Jacksonville, Ill., is one of 30 University of Illinois engineering students recently honored by selection for membership in Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity. This organization has the highest requirements for new members of any in its field.

These include a scholastic standing well above "B" average, plus high character and promise. Tau Beta Pi has 70,000 members and 90 active chapters throughout the United States. The chapter at Illinois, established in 1897 was the society's fourth.

The Illinois chapter has 60 undergraduate members, and some 150 members of the engineering faculty are members of the society. Buster is a junior majoring in electrical engineering.

Mother Reveals Ex-Greene Girl Married In West

White Hall—Mrs. A. B. Walker of this city, announced the marriage of her daughter, Emilie C. Foster, to William Donald Grower, of Downey, Calif. The ceremony took place last Saturday evening at the home of the bride's brother, John T. Walker, in Downey.

The bride was recently employed in southern California as a registered nurse.

Grower, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Grower of Rome,

N. Y., has been engaged in tool designing for the Rheem Manufacturing Company of Downey. The groom plans to open a consulting engineering office in White Hall or vicinity within the near future.

The couple will arrive from the west this week to make their home here.

Drive It Yourself!

ONLY PONTIAC
GIVES YOU THIS DUAL-RANGE COMBINATION!

More Powerful
High-Compression Engine
New Dual-Range Hydra-Matic Drive*—
The Right Power at the Right Time!
High Performance Economy Axle—
Fewer Engine Revolutions
Per Mile!

A Spectacular Performer — A Wonderful Value!

We want you to pick out a proving ground over which you would like to drive a new Dual-Range* Pontiac. Choose a stretch where traffic is always heavy—and a few miles of open road where you can step out a little.

Then come in, get behind the wheel of a new Dual-Range Pontiac and watch all your driving troubles fade away! In Pontiac's Traffic Range you will ease through the toughest driving so nimbly, so easily, so smoothly you'll hardly know there's another car around.

Then out on the open road, you're in Cruising Range—so smooth and quiet it's almost like coasting. In Cruising Range you actually reduce engine revolutions almost 30 per cent without losing a mile in speed. No wonder you save gasoline every hour you drive!

When you've finished your own proving ground drive, take a good long look at the wonderful Pontiac you've been driving. Look at its distinctive Silver Streak beauty, the luxurious style and comfort of its Bodies by Fisher, its sweeping full-circle vision. Remember, too, you're looking at America's lowest priced straight-eight; the lowest priced car you can buy with Hydra-Matic Drive.

Then let us show you one more thing—the wonderful deal we can make that will put you behind the wheel of your own new Pontiac!

Organize Unit Of Passavant Aid At Murrayville

Murrayville—A Passavant Memorial Aid unit for the Murrayville area was created at a recent meeting at the Murrayville Methodist church. Eighteen members were enrolled.

Officers from the Jacksonville society were present to explain the purposes and duties of an Aid unit. Mrs. Waldus Bealmear, membership chairman, introduced Mrs. Merton Abbott, who discussed the goals of the new organization and the plans it will follow.

Mrs. Lida K. McBride reported on the founding of the group. Mrs. O.

M. Olsen and Mrs. Hugh Green described the Gift Shop. Mrs. A. B. Applebee, Mrs. Lena Piepenbring, Miss Mabel Reid and Mrs. Lena Dixon Dietz spoke of the Nursing School unit and the Hospitality unit to be organized in connection with the Grey Ladies course of training. A discussion period followed.

Committees were appointed. Mrs. T. L. Wilson was named chairman of arrangements with Mrs. Carl Sooy, Mrs. Russell Summers, Mrs. C. F. Strang and Mrs. Waldus Bealmear as her co-workers. To the reception committee were appointed Mrs. Herman Baker, Mrs. Warren Jones and Mrs. Grover Hamilton.

Mrs. Harry Rimby was given charge of decorations. Refreshments of coffee, tea and cookies were served. Mrs. C. E. Sharrow poured.

Organization details and sewing are scheduled for the next meeting, to be held at the City Hall Monday at 1:30 p.m. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

REMOTE CONTROL DOCTORS

San Pedro, Calif.—(P)—U.S. health officers here are getting used to doctoring by "remote control."

Skippers aboard the big tuna clippers, which run between here and South America, call the federal health men by radiotelephone when they have a serious medical problem aboard.

Recently, the doctors advised treatment for Fred Paseri, 50, who suffered an eye injury aboard a vessel off Lower California. George Fukuzaki, a fisherman, also received radio advice when he became ill recently while his ship was near Acapulco, Mexico.

KIDNAP VICTIM RETURNS
Thirteen-year-old Linda Lambeth (L) is cheered by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Carlin, in Seattle, Wash. The child was snatched by a kidnapper who beat the child and threw her from his car. Sheriff's deputies found the girl unconscious in a ditch at the edge of town. The kidnapper had left a demand for $4,000 ransom.

BLUFFS

Bluffs—Mrs. Newton Gregory who has been a surgical patient at Our Saviour's hospital returned to her home Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence Mueller returned to her home Sunday from Our Saviour's hospital.

Pvt. Leroy Vortman, who has been enjoying leave with his parents returned to San Francisco this week.

Relatives have received word that Pvt. Leroy Friesen has arrived in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Knoepfel have returned home from a two weeks trip in Arkansas and Missouri.

The Program committee of the Bluffs Civic club has announced that Rev. Fred E. Kern, pastor of the First Methodist church at Mt. Sterling will be the speaker at the May 12 meeting. Rev. Kern will speak on his recent trip to Washington, D. C. with a group of Methodist ministers.

MOTHER VISITS SCATTERED CHILDREN

Tomahawk, Alta.—(P)—Mrs. Belle Runzer, 72, recently completed a 10,000-mile airplane trip. She visited her children in New York, Florida, Chicago and Kansas City.

BIRTHDAYS FETED AT ROLSON HOME

A basket dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rolson east of the city honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Richard Rust and Mrs. Martha Angelo.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzpatrick and daughters, Geraldine and Susan, of Milan, Wilmer Lear and daughters, Alma, Rita and Joyce, and son, Kenneth, of Versailles, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Lear and Miss Dona Hicks of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lear and daughters, Una and Celia, and sons, Charles and John, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lear and sons, Stephen and Russell, and Richard Rust of Jacksonville.

GOVERNMENT TO SELL OIL

Cairo—(P)—The Iraq cabinet has authorized the economy ministry to sell three million tons of crude oil, the Arab news agency reports. Iraq gets the crude oil under a royalty arrangement with the British-run Iraq Petroleum Co.

CATS HAVE TWO-COLOR EYES

Birsay, Sask.—(P)—The Gordon Gemmill household here has two freak kittens. Each is pure white and each has one blue and one green eye. The mother cat has green eyes, and the father blue eyes.

OLD SCHOOL TIE—Queen Juliana of The Netherlands had more than a passing interest in the centenary celebration of the "King's School" at Apeldoorn, Holland, where she displayed her royal way with children. Officially named, "The School of His Majesty King Willem III and Her Majesty Queen Emma of The Netherlands," the school was established by Juliana's grandfather in 1852.

HOW FAR EAST IS "FAR EAST"?—It has long been almost anyone's guess as to just what countries make up the "Near East," "Middle East," and "Far East." The designations, used to break up the vast Orient into easily identified sections, have been variously interpreted at different times. Newsmap, above, shows locations of the three regions, based on geographical divisions, as outlined by the National Geographic Society.

Patterson-Hillview
Unit Hears Lesson
About Appearance

Patterson — The Home Bureau unit of Patterson and Hillview met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Clevie Otey. Ten members answered to roll call with "my favorite summer dessert."

The major lesson, "Look Your Best Every Day," was given by Mrs. Rosemary Reynolds. The vice chairman of the Home Bureau, Mrs. Fred Wagner, gave a talk.

Angel food cake and ice cream dessert was served by Mrs. Clevie Otey and Mrs. Charles Powell.

Guests present were Mrs. George Hunnicutt, Mrs. Michael Shae, Mrs. Edward Ridings, Mrs. Jesse Ridings, Mrs. Clyde Hubbard, Mrs. Fred Wagner, Mrs. Keith Angle, Mrs. Henry Hackmeister, Mrs. Carrie Vinyard, Mrs. Gale George, Mrs. Harmon Beams, Mrs. Howard Moore, Mrs. Marjorie Barrett and Mrs. Hazel Barnett.

The meeting place for next month has not been set.

Guests At Kootz Orchards
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kootz and family of the Kootz Orchards west of town had as "Apple Blossom Sunday" guests the following friends and relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lines, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wessell, Mrs.

Charles Kootz, Mrs. Nora Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kootz and family, all of Loraine.

Mr. and Mrs. Luverne Stoneking and family, Warsaw; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Shupe and family, Mendon; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kootz and family, Golden; and Mr. and Mrs. Armin Shanks and daughter, Camp Point.

Visit Patterson School

Wednesday was visiting day at the Patterson grade school. Pupils from Howard and Oak Grove schools were guests, arriving via the Patterson school bus. These pupils will attend the Patterson school next year.

The teachers treated the pupils and guests to soda pop and candy bars.

Mrs. Effie Sherwin will go to Cottage Hills this weekend for a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sherwin and family.

MOTHERS LANDSCAPE SCHOOL GROUNDS

Lexington, Ky. —(P)—Washing muddy school clothes got tiresome so the mothers of the Waterford Homemakers club in Spencer decided to cure the source of the trouble.

They started a campaign to landscape the school grounds. The soil was tested and seed sown. The school board furnished fertilizer and built a turn-around for the bus to save the grass. They are going to finish the job by planting shrubs.

To More Comfort
Without Napping Backache

Napping backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes the important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 18 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

REDS COMPLAIN ABOUT JAZZ
Belgrade —(P)—The newspaper Borba, voice of Marshal Tito's Communist Party, recently complained that there is too much "jazz." And bad jazz at that.

Few who have listened to some attempts to strike the same notes as top American bands would disagree.

Borba agreed that jazz itself is okay. But with this condition: "Only when the composer and reproducing artist are talented and masters of their profession."
